CURRENTLY BUDGETED EVENTS
(Internal Portfolio)
- 4Floors, FACO, SSMU awards

FALL SEMESTER
Movie Night on Lower Field
- Sept 22, and Sept 29
- ~2000-3000 participants for both nights

4Floors
- 900/900 Tickets Sold!
- Huge success
- Ticketing, coat check → No issues
- Vendors: Tacos, Magician, Tarot Card Reader, Caricature Drawings, Popcorn, Escape Room
- Haunted House, Ballroom Party

Puppy yoga
- Late Nov
- Partnering with a studio to give us discounted tickets
- One or two events at the studio
- Purpose is to be an accessible, stress-relieving event

WINTER SEMESTER
Valentine's Day Ball
- Feb 11 or 12
- 8 pm - 12 am
- Indoors, ballroom
- Speed dating
- Gala (food and jazz/party)
- Budget: ~8000 Dollars
    - Breakdown: approximation
    - $3500 ticket sales
    - $2300 materials and supplies
    - $1500 food
    - $4800 tech
    - $1000 honorarium
    - $500 comms

    - $1200 security
- Aim to get sponsors this year

Winter Festival for Francofete

- Supported by the President, Deep Saini
- Promoting Francophone Culture
- Late march
- Dry event
- Performances by Francophone students
- From 1-9pm
- Local/cultural food vendors
- Snow person building
- Free ice skating (tentative partnership)
- Music
- On lower field
- Featuring French Artists
- Budget Range: 10k-30k (Variable)
    - Depending on the Artists that are booked for the event
    - Depending on the elaborate setup

St.Patrick's Day

- Wed March 17
- Inclusive events: boardgames, free pancakes, ginger run - partner with redfrogs
- Reopening Gerts for st.patricks

SSMU Awards + EOY Party

- Early april (Friday april 2)
- indoors/ballroom
- Maybe catered by Pascal
- To promote student engagement
- Final goodbye before the year ends
- Semi-formal ball
- Possibility: having the EOY party at a club after the awards ceremony
    - Budget: Considerations for rental fee, DJ fee, alcohol fee
    - Objective: Incentivize more people, who are not in student government circles, to attend the End-of-Year event