- Weekly meetings going well, discussing upcoming events (below)

EVENTS/UPCOMING EVENTS:

- 4Floors
    - Was successful!
    - Many SSPN members volunteered their time to help make 4Floors enjoyable for everyone who bought a ticket, and help to alleviate the pressure off of full-time staff
- Puppy Yoga
    - Planning Puppy Yoga
    - Discussing and reaching out to potential Puppy Yoga studios to see who offers the best rate
    - Hive Puppy Yoga offers the best rate - discussing how many classes we should run
    - Discussions around whether this would be a good idea to bring back, and how to gather interest for this preliminary event
- Valentines Day Ball:
    - Tropical island theme!!! Love Island?!?!?!
    - Talks of including a jazz band, dating show, performances by student groups, dj, including other fun activities this year
    - Getting rid of the online dating form…
    - Scheduled to run feb 11
- Winter Festival Francofete
    - Supported by McGill President Deep Saini to promote Francophone culture; organized as a dry event.
    - Live music featuring French artists, performances by Francophone students, local/cultural food vendors, and snowman building

        - Further discussion is needed after consulting with the Associate Provost, Natallia
- St Patricks Day:
    - Daytime/Inclusive Events: Free pancakes, board games, in partnership with Red Frogs.
    - Gerts Bar: Early reopening with St. Patrick's-themed trivia, karaoke, performances, and competitions (awaiting confirmation from Helen via the Gerts booking form on adjacent events and dates).
    - Potential Event: Exploring the option of co-hosting an event at New City Gas with all participating faculties - in discussion
- SSMU Awards:
    - Discussions around whether a SSMU Awards ceremony and end of year after party should be separated or together
    - Discussions around how to market this event, especially for the afterparty so that students who aren't involved in student government would also want to come
    - Scheduled for near the end of classes (April 2)
