Legislative Council Report [Nov 19, 2026]

Overhaul of Internal Regulations of Finance

Completed comprehensive rework of the Internal Regulations of the Society's Finance, creation of the Budget Protocol, Credit Card Protocol, Funding Protocol, and Restricted Fees Protocol.

Overhaul of Funding Applications

Newly hired Finance Commissioner onboarded and specialized for Funding as this was an immediate need for students. Finalizing overhaul of Funding Application Forms, Funding Guidebook, and regulations. Scheduled to open Funding Applications Forms Monday, November 23rd.

Review of Student Insurance Plans

Analyzed 2024-2025, and 2025-2026 usage data of the SSMU Health Insurance, SSMU Dental Insurance, and SSMU Virtual Care plans. Continuous canvassing of students' experience with the different plans. Discussions and negotiations with the insurance provider to improve value and benefits for students.

Revised Budget into Accounting Workflow Overhaul

Initially was working to complete the Fall Revised Operating Budget, postponed due to discovering financial recording discrepancy between Operations and Accounting. Investigated the causes of these discrepancies and working with the General Manager and Department Directors to standardize rules, procedures, and workflow such that there is only a single source of truth for the financials of the Society. Creating an interim Budget Revision, for Departments where the discrepancies did not happen, as well as for Departments in which immediate short-term changes need to happen. To be presented at the December 3rd Legislative Council.

Financial Oversight

Continued daily responsibilities of reviewing, signing, and accounting for all financial activities and contracts of the Society.
