Jamal Tarrabain – Environment Faculty Representative

I hope everyone is enjoying the end of November. The students in my faculty are quite busy at the moment preparing for finals and as such it is a tad more difficult getting responses about what they would like to see implemented, but I will work harder to increase my outreach.

Environment Faculty

Prof Talks

- Were successful
- Good attendance
- Provided food
- Was held in the coffee co-op

Apple Picking

In planning stages

• Coffee Co-Op

- Put a down payment at the McGill Coffee Co-Op
- o Environment students get free tea/coffee
- Ends next week

Lola Samosa

- o Final event of the semester
- Happening Friday Dec. 1
- Samosas and Lola Rosa provided for the students
- Gert's drink tickets will be given to the students who attended
- You can all come

Committee

- Meeting happened last Wednesday evening
- Meet and greet Monday