

Report to Legislative Council April 11th, 2013

Orientation

- Workgroups- Had the large group OPG on the 5th in which we had most of the incomings and outgoings present to go over the goals of the OPG's very good discussion. At leader went over the topics to go on the table for Coord retreat. One that's really exciting is figuring out a Coord accountability framework for coords during the actual orientation events. Also if you want to look over all of the material it is available at integratedorientation.pbworks.com
- Leaders – Leader recruitment well underway across the faculties. Most of them are having the actual interviews this weekend and next weekend. If you or any constituents are interested in getting involved in orientation some faculties still have O-Staff positions available for registration. The first year office is also still looking for volunteers for discover McGill so be sure to look into this as well.
- Hiring -- Applications for communications team finish on the 14th and will be scheduled after that. Frosh Coord interviews are being scheduled now.
- Coord Retreat – Made the budget for this and am just finalizing the weekend and then will reach out to the MOC to confirm rental. Will have everything booked in the coming week except bus which will be booked closer to the date once have attending numbers confirmed.

Old McGill

- Printing – At the printers now. Will be calling Friesens tomorrow to ensure everything is on track.
- Sales – Talked to the McGill bookstore today about setting up a yearbook sales point there somewhere by the gowns or something or even incorporating it into the cost of renting gowns. They said the sales shouldn't be a problem and need to look at integrating it into the gown rentals will be following up on this as would really facilitate sales. Will be starting advertising for the yearbook/prebuy on Monday.

Sponsorship

- The sponsorship coordinator has completed her edits for the sponsorship package for the 2013-2014 year. This is much better than last year as the delay in creating a new package impacted the Frosh sponsorship quite a bit. This way it will be ready immediately in the new fiscal year and for an easy transmission for her replacement in September.

Communications

- Listserv - Have been working closely with President Redel in regards to the McGillLeaks problem he will be updating in his report.
- SSMEWS – SQ
- Social Media – SQ congrats to the people who won the Oprah tickets. Too bad its during council.

Internal

- SSMU Awards Banquet- Thank you to those of you who came yesterday. Overall the event was fairly successful with some minor issues that are being worked on now and will report further at the last council. I received the final invoice today and the evening came in about $1000 under budget which was nice.
- Exam time activities - Will have the exam time puppies in the building in partnership with student services Have been looking into the other activities will be doing a lot of research in this over the weekend to implement something early next week.

HR

- Interviews – Started going well. The incoming has been coming to some of these which has been nice to get his input on the materials.
