 - ii) the Vice-President
 - iii) the Organization Director
 - iv) the External Relations Director
 - v) the Communications Director
 - vi) the Finance Director
- 2. The affairs of PC McGill shall be conducted by the Executive.

3. The President shall be the principal executive officer of PC McGill and shall uphold the Constitution and preside at all meetings of PC McGill and the Executive.

4. The duties of the members of the executive shall be

i) the Vice-President shall perform any duties of the president in the event of the president's absence, shall perform any other duties assigned to him/her by the Executive, and shall generally act as assistant to the President ii) the Organization Director shall be specifically responsible for PC McGill recruitment within the McGill University Campus, and shall be responsible for planning any social activities of PC McGill, and taking minutes at all meetings of the Executive and of the general membership.

iii) the External Relations Director is responsible for establishing and maintaining relations between PC McGill and other political and non-political associations, at the discretion of the President.

iv) the Communication Director shall be responsible for the development of a cohesive communications programme, and for ensuring the production of any publication deemed necessary by the executive.

v) the Finance Director shall be responsible for the development of an annual fundraising program. He/She will be responsible for administering PC McGill's budget.

5. The Executive may appoint Committee Chair persons, and they shall be non-voting members of the Executive.

6. Meetings of the Executive shall be held on the call of:

i) the direction of the President; or

ii) the direction in writing of any three voting members of the Executive.

7. The Executive shall meet at least four times in each school year commencing in September, ending in March.

8. At any meeting of the Executive, a majority of voting members of the Executive shall constitute quorum and each voting member of the Executive shall have one vote. Questions arising shall be determined by a 2/3 majority of votes.

Article 5. FEES

1. The Finance Director shall collect a nominal yearly fee from each member. Said fee shall be a minimum of $2.

Article 6. FINANCES

1. PC McGill's financial records shall be guarded by the Finance Director.

2. The Finance Director must produce on demand the PC McGill financial records to any Executive member or to any member during a general meeting.

3. Upon the Finance Director's end of term he/she must hand over the financial records to the incoming Finance Director.

4. A yearly budget must be submitted by the Finance Director, in September, which will give details of resource allocation for that year. This budget must be approved by both the Executive and the members.

5. The signing officers shall be the President and the Finance Director. Conditions of withdrawal are:

i) the President and the Finance Director may withdraw, upon consultation with each other, 25% of the available funds to a maximum of one hundred dollars; or

ii) permission to withdraw funds in excess of one hundred dollars must be decided by the Executive members with a 2/3 vote.

Article 7. ELECTIONS AND VOTING

1. There are three types of voting procedures present in the operations of PC McGill. They are as follows;

i) Motions at meeting of the General Membership

ii) Elections of the Executive Council. These elections shall be held at a General Assembly meeting held in March of each year.

iii) Motions at meetings of the Executive Council

2. The procedures of voting in each of these cases shall be defined as follows;

i) at any meeting of the General Membership, each and every member shall have the right to bring forward a motion for consideration by the membership. When the question is put, passage of the motion shall be determined by a simple majority of the members present, providing quorum is attained;

ii) to be eligible to vote in an election of Executive Members, members must:

a) have been members for PC McGill for two days and;

b) have paid membership dues forty-five days prior to the date of the election;

iii) at any meeting of the Executive, any Executive member may bring forward a motion for consideration by the Executive Members, when the question is put, passage of the motion shall be determined by a 2/3 majority in all instances.

3. The election of elected members of the Executive shall be governed by the following provisions:

i) No person shall be eligible for election to the same office for a third consecutive term;

ii) a member shall be eligible for delegate status provided he/she has been a member forty-five days prior to the election of the PC McGill Executives;

iii) each delegate shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each office to be filled, this vote shall be given by secret ballot;

iv) a member may only be nominated for one position during each yearly election;

v) for each position a majority of the votes must be received in order to win, thus after each voting round the contestant with the fewest votes shall be dropped from the ballot;

vi) in case of a tie vote, a second ballot shall be taken, if this round produces a second tie then the President shall abstain from voting unless he/she has been nominated to the position in question. In this case the Vice-President shall abstain from voting;

vii) any further additions to the conduct of elected members shall be determined and published by the Executive at least thirty days prior to the commencement of the election of officers.

4. If for any reason whatsoever the position of President becomes vacant during the currency of a term, that position shall be filled by the Vice-President as determined by Article 4, paragraph 4, sub-section i, hereof. The vacancy shall be filled by a member of PC McGill following the procedure outlined in paragraph 5 hereof.

5. If for any reason whatsoever any other position on the Executive shall become vacant during the currency of any term, that vacancy shall be filled by a member of PC McGill, as soon as possible following:

- i) due notification of the vacancy to the members
- ii) a suitable time period for application and consideration;
- iii) a vote by the Executive, requiring a 2/3 majority

ADD.
— elections shall take place @ a General meeting in March of every year.

Article 8. DISMISSAL

1. A member of the Executive Committee can be removed from his/her position provided the following provision is fulfilled:

i) a vote by the general membership takes place to remove the member from office. The motion requires a 2/3 majority to pass. Once the motion is passed by the membership, the officer is immediately removed from his position and must turn over to the Executive any property of PC McGill.

Article 9. GENERAL MEETINGS

1. A general meeting of PC McGill shall be called:

- i) under the direction of the President, in consultation with the executive, or
- ii) on receipt of a petition in writing signed by at least ten members of PC McGill, setting out the nature of the business to be conducted.

2. The Executive members must make all reasonable efforts to contact all members at least twenty-four hours prior to the general meeting.

3. At least four general meetings must be held during the school year (September to March).

4. Twenty-five percent of the members shall form quorum at a general meeting and at elections of PC McGill officers.

5. Any member of PC McGill may speak to any question arising, subject to the discretion of the meeting chairman (the President).

6. Every question shall be decided by a simple majority of the votes, providing quorum is met, and unless otherwise required by this Constitution.

Article 10. AFFILIATION

1. PC McGill is recognized by:

- i) the Westmount/Ville-Marie federal riding
- ii) the Progressive Conservative Youth Association
- iii) the Progressive Conservative Party of Canada
