

ARTICLE 2 – STUDENTS’ SOCIETY AWARD OF DISTINCTION

Purpose

2.1 The SSMU affirms that student excellence must embrace both the extra-curricular and academic aspects of a student’s life. As a result, the SSMU created the Students’ Society Award of Distinction (“SSAD” or “Award”) for outstanding contributions to the McGill community. These scholarships shall be awarded to undergraduate students who have demonstrated leadership at McGill University through significant contributions to student activities and organizations coupled with outstanding academic achievement.

2.15 The Selection Committee also has the power to determine the value and number of awards, as set out in By-law 2.6 and 2.7.

Eligibility

2.16 Eligible applicants must:

2.16.1 Be SSMU members;

2.16.2 Be full-time or part-time students currently registered and continuing in their degree programs; and

2.16.3 Have completed a minimum of 12 credits by the conclusion of the current academic year.

2.17 Awards may be given to students currently attending McGill University who will be registered at another post-secondary education institute in the coming year.

2.18 Student members of the Selection Committee and SSMU Executives (past and present) are ineligible.

Assessment of Applications

2.19 Outstanding academic merit shall be evaluated on an applicant's entire undergraduate performance.

2.20 Financial need may be a consideration should the number of qualified applicants exceed the number of scholarships.

2.20.1 A self-assessment of financial need, similar to that used by the McGill University Department of Financial Aid, shall be submitted with the application.

2.21 All candidates must submit two letters of reference. One (1) must attest to the applicant's contributions to student life. The other must be written by an instructor at McGill University.

2.22 All applicants must provide a resume outlining their principal extra-curricular activities.

2.23 All applicants must provide two (2) copies of their Official Transcript. No unofficial transcripts will be accepted from applicants.

2.23.1 Any applicant who has transcripts from another university must submit those as well. The Selection Committee can create any additional application requirements they see fit.

2.24 All applications shall be held in strict confidence and shall be reviewed only by the Selection Committee.

2.25 Once the SSAD has been awarded, the SSMU General Manager will archive all applications.
