

Motion Regarding Support for the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions Movement

WHEREAS, the SSMU Constitution states that “the SSMU commits to demonstrating leadership in matters of human rights [and] social justice,”<sup>1</sup> and the SSMU Equity Policy states that “the SSMU – an organization working with individuals, in groups, within organizations, and across a wide social and political context – shall promote a functional and anti-oppressive environment”<sup>2</sup>;

WHEREAS, in 2005, over 170 Palestinian civil society organizations called for Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) against Israel, and called “upon international civil society organizations and people of conscience all over the world to impose broad boycotts and implement divestment initiatives against Israel similar to those applied to South Africa in the apartheid era”<sup>3</sup>;

WHEREAS, this call for BDS states that such campaigns are to remain in place “until Israel meets its obligation to recognize the Palestinian people’s inalienable right to self-determination and fully complies with the precepts of international law by:

1. Ending its occupation and colonization of all Arab lands captured in 1967 and dismantling the Wall;
2. Recognizing the fundamental rights of the Arab-Palestinian citizens of Israel to full equality; and
3. Respecting, protecting and promoting the rights of Palestinian refugees to return to their homes and properties as stipulated in UN resolution 194”;

WHEREAS McGill holds investments in Mizrahi-Tefahot Bank,<sup>4</sup> which operates branches in illegal Israeli settlements and provides mortgages to homebuyers and financial services to local authorities, and finances construction on settlements internationally recognized as illegal<sup>5</sup>;

WHEREAS, McGill holds investments in L-3 Communications,<sup>6</sup> a company that supplied equipment to Israeli checkpoints and border crossings into Gaza, provided engines for Israeli tanks, and in collaboration with Elbit Systems assembled the Hermes 900 Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV) used in Operation

Office of the Speaker
Bureau de Président du Conseil

- Reading a statement in support of divestment from companies profiting from violations of Palestinian human rights at all Board of Governors meetings;
- Recommending no less than the complete divestment of holdings in such companies and implementation of an investment screen that would prevent future investments in similar companies.
