1. Name

McGill Students for Literacy

2. Objective

McGill Students for Literacy is dedicated to providing literacy assistance in our community in creative and experimental ways. We recognize that learning must be relevant to the learner’s life and that they must be actively involved in determining activities and goals. Further, we are committed to improving public awareness concerning literacy issues; we uphold literacy as a right and advocate its realization.

  - To actively involve the learners in the teaching experience and build on their strengths and interests in order to help them reach their specific, personal goals.
  - To celebrate the diversity of our learners and strive to meet each one’s individualistic needs.
  - To learn from the experiences of our matches and develop an intimate understanding of the role that literacy plays in empowering people.

- 3.2 Active Reading with Children (ARC)

  Mission Statement

ARC, in its promotion of reading, impresses upon children the importance of reading, while emphasizing its value as an enjoyable pastime. Good reading skills are fundamental to success in many aspects of life and by encouraging these skills in a low-stress, non-academic environment, reading becomes associated with pleasure and entertainment.
