

Councilor Report- WEEK OF OCT. 20th

Rachel Medvedev- POTUS, PTOT Rep.

- Met with POTUS Executives- each discussed upcoming projects, including Occupational Balance Month for the SPOT- swing dance, yoga, dog therapy, healthy eating; Banque Nationale Conference (November) for undergrads
- Possible Interprofesional Group Meeting- potential activity day for all med/health programs
- Met with Sarah Marshall (Director's Academic Associate) with the other POTUS executives – she discussed her role, ways she can work with POTUS. She's looking for volunteers from SPOT for upcoming events like Open House (Oct 30th) and Homecoming (Oct 28). I signed up for Open House- waiting for confirmation.

Councilor Report: October, 13 2016

EUS:

Council retreat for EUS was two weeks ago. Most recent EUS council meeting was yesterday, motions to approve a new financial plan and co-op fee referendum for mining students were passed. The financial plan examined all exec portfolios as well as large projects during the entire academic year. There's currently an initiative being worked on by the EUS president to increase accessibility in the EUS. Like most student run governments/societies, it can be intimidating to get involved if you missed that opportunity as a first/second year. This new policy is being drafted and worked on by a couple of engineers.

I sit on PBR, which is the bylaw review committee. It's the steering committee for EUS council, which meets every Thursday that we do not have SSMU.

SSPN: Four floors is the last Thursday of October and it should be pretty lit. Tickets are going to be sold at the y intersection this Friday for $20. Multiple student performers as well as a great headliner will be there. It seems like all of the subcommittees are doing great at the moment, should help to restore 4Floors reputation.

Services Committee: Meeting is rescheduled to next Wednesday.

Outside of Council:

Humans of McGill University is a side project that's going pretty well, would love to get a couple of people on the page at some point. If anyone has ideas for how to improve it, I would love to hear them!

Planning an event for SSUNS, the theme right now is going to be tropical. We can't get sand, but I'm thinking of ordering a tiki hut/torches for the place. If anyone has any connections with tropical decoration suppliers, hit me up.

Midterms aren't fun, but I have one tomorrow, then have a two-week break after which is sweet.

That's it, thanks for reading the report!

III. Personal

During my first LC meeting, my “fun fact” about myself was that I’m starting to grow artisanal mushrooms. There are the roots of the first one. Her name is Portabella.

Stay golden Ponyboys & Ponygirls,
