2. GENERAL

- 2.1 The Judicial Board is an official dispute resolution body of the SSMU empowered to hear Actions involving Members of the SSMU and emit Decisions within its Jurisdiction.
- 2.2 The Judicial Board shall not render an opinion on the interpretation of SSMU documents without a proper consultation. Judicial Board opinions require a thorough decision-making process during which principles of legal interpretation and reasoning are applied to the facts of a matter before the Judicial Board.
- 2.3 These Procedures are the Judicial Board's rules of practice established in accordance with the Internal Regulations.
- 2.4 The Judicial Board shall abide by the applicable laws and SSMU's governing documents in the following order of priority:
 - (a) The Companies Act, RSQ, c C-38;
 - (b) The Constitution;
 - (c) The Internal Regulations;
 - (d) Any SSMU Policies; and
 - (e) These Procedures.
- 2.5 Every communication to the Judicial Board shall be addressed to jboard@ssmu.ca.

3. LANGUAGE OF PROCEEDINGS

- 3.1 English, being the language of instruction at McGill University, is the de facto language of the Judicial Board. As such, Proceedings shall be carried out primarily in English.
- 3.2 The Judicial Board shall make all reasonable efforts—in consideration of available resources—to accommodate French-speaking Parties and Intervenors who may wish to bring forward Actions, defend against them or intervene in them.

4. QUORUM

- 4.1 The quorum during an internal meeting of the Judicial Board shall be a simple majority of Justices appointed, but no less than three (3) Justices.

4.2 The Judicial Board may sit in a panel of three (3), five (5), or seven (7) Justices during a Hearing.

4.3 In instances of vacancy among the Justices constituting the Judicial Board, the Board of Directors shall fill the vacancy with all due dispatch.

5. JUSTICES' OBLIGATIONS

5.1 The Justices shall endeavor to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Members of the SSMU and shall exercise the care, diligence, and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

5.2 Where a Justice is in a Conflict of Interest, they shall withdraw from any Proceedings so concerned and shall not attempt to influence any Justices involved therein. The Justice(s) shall immediately declare such Conflict of Interest and recusal in a written notice to the other Justices.

5.3 No Justice shall give an opinion on a matter susceptible of being the subject of an Action before the Judicial Board.

6. CHIEF JUSTICE

6.1 A Chief Justice shall be selected by the Justices annually or as a vacancy arises through a single majority secret ballot vote during the first formal internal meeting of the Judicial Board for the year or at the next formal internal meeting since the vacancy arose.

6.2 The Justices may, for serious and valid reasons such as ineptitude, impossibility of performance, and any similar reason, replace the Chief Justice by a single majority secret ballot at a duly called internal meeting. The Chief Justice must be provided with notice of the motion and an opportunity to present their position.

6.3 The former Chief Justice shall not be stripped of their status as Justice.

7. JURISDICTION

7.1 In accordance with Section 15.1 of the Constitution, the Judicial Board has the authority to adjudicate on matters outlined by Section 1 of the Internal Regulations concerning the Judicial Board.

- 7.2 By filing a Petition, the Petitioner(s) agree to submit the dispute to the sole Jurisdiction of the Judicial Board and agrees to be bound by the Judicial Board's Decision upon ratification by the Board of Directors pursuant to Sections 4.2, 5.4 and 5.5 of the Internal Regulations concerning the Judicial Board.
- 7.3 The Petitioner(s) may, at any time prior to the Hearing, withdraw the Action, by way of a written notice to the Judicial Board. Where multiple Petitioners do not agree on the withdrawal or the Action has taken on a larger importance, the remaining Petitioner(s) or any interested Member of the SSMU may continue the Action.
- 7.4 The Judicial Board will not entertain Petitions which are frivolous, vexatious or of inconsequential merit. Such determination shall solely rest on the Judicial Board's interpretation of the submitted Petition and contextual background.

8. FORMS, DECLARATIONS AND DEADLINES

- 8.1 All Forms must conform substantially to their respective format as specified in Annexes 1 through 4 hereof.
- 8.2 All Declarations must contain the Party's written arguments and substantially conform to the format of Form D-1 found in Annex 4 hereof. Declarations must be limited to twenty (20) pages double spaced, with size 12 Times New Roman font and 1" margins. The cover page, table of contents, authorities and appendices are excluded from the page limit. A Party may request, in writing, to extend the page limit.
- 8.3 Any Form that is not submitted before the applicable deadline shall be automatically rejected by the Judicial Board without further consideration.
- 8.4 Notwithstanding Section 8.3 hereof, a Party or Intervenor may make a request for extension at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the deadline. The Judicial Board has complete discretion whether to approve such request and will only grant requests under exceptional circumstances, unless all the Parties agree to the extension in writing.

8.5 All Forms must be submitted electronically to jboard@ssmu.ca.

9. PRELIMINARY PROCEDURES, PETITIONER AND RESPONDENT

9.1 An Action is commenced when a Member of the SSMU submits a signed Petition (Form P-1) accompanied by a Declaration (Form D-1) and all relevant documents, to the Judicial Board no more than ten (10) Days after:

- (a) the event that is the cause for the Petition; or
- (b) the Petitioner becoming aware of the event that is the cause for the Petition.

9.2 The Judicial Board shall decide, within 48 hours after receiving the Petitioner's Forms, whether it has Jurisdiction to hear such Petition brought before it in accordance with Sections 7.1 and 7.4 hereof.

9.3 Should the Judicial Board deny Jurisdiction, it shall provide written reasons for the rejection to the Parties.

9.4 Should the Judicial Board accept Jurisdiction, it shall send written notice of the acceptance to the Parties and invite the Respondent(s) to submit their position by duly completing Form R-1 and submitting a Declaration. Such a response must be filed no more than ten (10) Days after the invitation of the Judicial Board. Upon reception, the Judicial Board will forward the Respondent's Forms to the Petitioner(s).

9.5 Should the Judicial Board receive requests from third-parties asking it to publish the Parties' Declarations, the Judicial Board will forward these requests to the relevant Parties. A Party may publish their own Declaration.

10. INTERIM ORDERS

10.1 A Party may file a separate request for an Interim Order.

10.2 The Judicial Board may issue an Interim Orders only upon the request of at least one of the Parties. Interim Orders shall be binding on all Parties, and on all persons advised of the order who are subject to the authority of the Judicial Board.

10.3 The Judicial Board shall provide an Executive Summary of its written reasons for an Interim Order. The Executive Summary is not part of the written reasons, and is thus not binding.

- 10.4 The Judicial Board may convene a hearing to decide upon an Interim Order.
- 10.5 The Judicial Board may exceptionally determine the issue based solely on the written submission and in an ex parte manner if the request for an Interim Order is time-sensitive.
- 10.6 The Judicial Board shall decide upon the merits of an application for an Interim Order as soon as reasonably possible. This decision may be made by no less than three (3) Justices.
- 10.7 The Judicial Board shall consider the following factors when determining whether it should grant a Party's request for an Interim Order:
 - (a) The existence of a serious issue to be heard;
 - (b) Whether the Party requesting an Interim Order will suffer irreparable harm if the Interim Order is not granted;
 - (c) The balance of inconvenience.

11. INTERVENORS

- 11.1 Following the submission of the Respondent's Forms or the expiry of the ten (10) Day delay, whichever comes first, an invitation shall be extended by the Judicial Board inviting interested parties who may wish to intervene in the dispute to complete Form I-1 "Application for intervention" and submitting an electronic copy to the Judicial Board no more than three (3) Days following first publication of notice. The invitation to the interested parties shall be made through at least two (2) of the following:
 - (a) Campus media;
 - (b) SSMU Facebook page;
 - (c) SSMU Listserv.
- 11.2 The Judicial Board may recognize any Member, club, or services of the SSMU, any independent student groups, or any other student associations and their clubs and services as an Intervenor.

- 11.3 A Member, club, or service of the SSMU, any independent student groups, or any student associations and their clubs and services will only be accorded Intervenor status if, among other, it ensures that an affected interest group is represented, or the submissions will be useful to the Judicial Board and different from those of the Parties. Such determination shall rest exclusively on the Justices' own interpretation of the matter. For greater certainty, Intervenor status is appointed without the permission of the Parties.
- 11.4 Should the Judicial Board accept an Intervenor, it shall notify the Intervenor no later than five (5) Days after the end of the submission period mentioned in Section 11.1 hereof.
- 11.5 There shall be a maximum of three (3) Intervenor per Action or Reference Question. Where the Judicial Board sees it as necessary, this number may be increased under special circumstances.
- 11.6 Intervenor must submit a Declaration prior to the Hearing. Intervenor may choose to make oral submissions at the Hearing, but are not obliged to do so. Written submissions shall be in the Form of a Declaration and conform to all restrictions described in Section 8.2 hereof. The Intervenor's Declaration must be sent within five (5) Days of receiving notice of acceptance as an Intervenor. The Judicial Board shall forward the Intervenor's Declaration to the Parties upon reception.

12. ADVOCATES AND RIGHT TO REPRESENTATION

- 12.1 A Party or an Intervenor involved in a Proceeding may designate an Advocate. Only Members of the SSMU, not remunerated in any way for their services may be designated as an Advocate.
- 12.2 No Party or Intervenor is required to be represented by an Advocate during the Proceedings, and may self-represent. A SSMU club, service or independent student group must be represented by a representative duly-authorized to speak on behalf of the entity.
- 12.3 Each Party and Intervenor shall be entitled to no more than one (1) Advocate during the Hearing, and the said Advocate shall have been designated to the Judicial Board by written notice at least two (2) Days prior to the scheduled Hearing.
- 12.4 No witness shall be represented by an Advocate in a Hearing.

13. PRESIDING JUSTICE

- 13.1 The Chief Justice shall be the Presiding Justice to lead a Proceeding.
- 13.2 Where multiple separate Actions are simultaneously brought before the Judicial Board, the Chief Justice may remain on the panel, but refrain from exercising their duties as the Presiding Justice for one of the Actions.
- 13.3 Where a panel is composed absent the Chief Justice or where the Chief Justice refrains from exercising their duties as the Presiding Justice, the Judicial Board shall appoint, by common understanding, one (1) Presiding Justice to lead the Proceedings. Such appointment shall be effective only for the duration of such Proceedings.

14. MEDIATION

- 14.1 The Parties may agree, upon mutual consent, to enter into a mediation process at any time before the Hearing, except for Actions involving the interpretation of the Constitution. A Hearing must be held to resolve issues concerning the constitutionality of SSMU documents.
- 14.2 Upon reception of the applicable Forms of the Petitioner(s) and the Respondent(s) and where agreed to by both Parties, the Judicial Board shall appoint a Justice to preside over a mediation session as an alternative and preferred recourse. The purpose of mediation is to amicably resolve the dispute without proceeding to a hearing.
- 14.3 Advocates may be present at the mediation session at the request of the respective Party.

15. PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE

- 15.1 Where the dispute is not amicably resolved during mediation, the Parties, Intervenors, where applicable, and Advocates, where applicable, and Justices shall meet in a preliminary conference, and discuss a number of issues informally, including but not limited to:
- (a) agreement on non-contentious facts of the dispute;
 - (b) stipulation of witness testimony;

- (c) amendment of Petition or respective Declaration(s);
- (d) explanation of Hearing procedures;
- (e) explanation of admissible evidence; and
- (f) setting a date for the Hearing.

16. WITNESSES

- 16.1 Members and employees of the SSMU may be called by the Parties to testify as a witness at a Hearing, subject to the approval of the Judicial Board.
- 16.2 The Judicial Board may reject a Party's application to call Members or employees of the SSMU to testify as witnesses if the Party's application includes an unreasonable number of potential witnesses or if multiple witnesses will make similar testimonies.
- 16.3 No witness shall have the status of an expert witness.

17. HEARING RIGHTS AND PROCEDURE

- 17.1 Hearings are open to the public, limited only by space restrictions in the designated Hearing room.
- 17.2 Such Hearing room must be on the premises of the McGill University downtown campus and must be easily accessible to all Members of the SSMU.
- 17.3 Justices shall have the power to remove anyone from a Hearing if they are disruptive, threatening, or offensive.
- 17.4 No audiovisual recordings shall be taken during a Hearing, but attendees may take handwritten notes.
- 17.5 Justices may ask questions directly to witnesses, Parties, Intervenors and Advocates.
- 17.6 Justices shall dress in formal business attire for all Hearings. There shall be no dress requirement for any other attendees.
- 17.7 The Hearing shall proceed as follows, unless decided otherwise by the Justices:

- (a) The Presiding Justice shall introduce each of the sitting Justices and outline the rules of the Hearing;
 - (b) The Petitioner(s), followed by the Respondent(s), may make an opening statement to introduce the nature of the Action, and the facts of the case for no more than five (5) minutes;
 - (c) The Petitioner(s) shall present and question its witnesses and shall tender evidence. The Respondent shall then present and question its witnesses and shall tender evidence. If applicable, the Intervenor(s) shall also present and question its witnesses and shall tender evidence. Each Party and the Intervenor(s) shall limit their respective interventions to twenty (20) minutes;
 - (d) The Respondent(s) or the Petitioner(s) may cross-examine the other Party's witnesses for no more than five (5) minutes respectively;
 - (e) The Intervenor(s) shall not be allowed to cross-examine witnesses;
 - (f) The Parties shall then proceed with oral arguments for no more than twenty (20) minutes each;
 - (g) Justices may intervene at any time to ask questions to an Advocate, Party, or witness; and
 - (h) The Petitioner(s), followed by the Respondent(s), may make a closing statement and/or rebuttal for no more than ten (10) minutes each. No new evidence may be introduced during the closing statement.
- 17.8 The Judicial Board may extend the time periods provided to the Parties by Section 17.7 hereof to make their oral pleadings, to present and question their witnesses, and to tender evidence.
- 18. PRELIMINARY DECISIONS AND WRITTEN REASONS
- 18.1 In accordance with Section 3.1 of the Internal Regulations concerning the Judicial Board, and where necessary, the Judicial Board may rule on matters related to the central issue in the form of a preliminary decision. A Party may file a request for a preliminary decision either prior to a Hearing, or by way of motion at the Hearing itself. The Judicial Board shall decide upon the merits of an application for a preliminary decision within a reasonable time.
- 18.2 The Judicial Board must provide written reasons for its Decision on the Action to the Board of Directors and the Parties within two (2) weeks of the Hearing.

- 18.3 The Judicial Board shall provide an Executive Summary of its written reasons for its Decision on the Action. The Executive Summary is not part of the written reasons, and is thus not binding.
- 18.4 An electronic version of the Decision shall be placed on the SSMU website and serve as official copy. The Decision shall be kept on file at the SSMU Office.

19. APPEALS

- 19.1 Decisions of the Judicial Board may be appealed to the Board of Directors in accordance with the rules set out in Section 5 of the Internal Regulations concerning the Judicial Board.

20. REFERENCE QUESTIONS

- 20.1 The President of SSMU, the Chief Returning Officer, the Board of Directors, the Legislative Council and the General Assembly may all submit a Reference Question to the Judicial Board.
- 20.2 In such instances, the Judicial Board shall accept to emit its opinion on contentious situations where no dispute has arisen.
- 20.3 A Reference Question shall be submitted by filing and submitting to the Judicial Board the form P-1. Intervenors shall be invited through the applicable process, and shall submit form I-1 to the Judicial Board.
- 20.4 There shall be a Hearing, during which the oral arguments of the Petitioner will be heard for no more than (10) minutes, followed by the oral arguments of the Intervenor(s), where applicable, which may last no more than (10) minutes each.
- 20.5 The Judicial Board must provide written reasons for its Reference Question Decision to the Board of Directors and the Petitioner(s) within two (2) weeks of the Hearing.
- 20.6 The Judicial Board shall provide an Executive Summary of its written reasons for its Decision on the Reference Question. The Executive Summary is not part of the written reasons, and is thus not binding.
