Issue

The Students' Society of McGill University (SSMU) Health and Dental Review Committee shall review the Health and Dental Plan and propose options for improvements to the plan. Currently, although mental health services are covered by the Health and Dental Plan, the mental health commissioner does not have a seat on this committee.

Background and Rationale

The mandate of the Health and Dental Review Committee includes reviewing and evaluating the coverage provided by the SSMU Health and Dental Plan. Professional services, including psychological and psychiatric services are covered by the Health and Dental Plan. Currently there are no members from the SSMU Mental Health Commission who sit on the committee.

Alignment with Mission

The role of the SSMU Mental Health Commissioner includes advocating for mental health resources. Thus, having a seat on the Health and Dental Review Committee will allow the commissioner to evaluate the needs of mental health resources as well as offer considerations to this effect for the Health and Dental Insurance Policy. As mental health is a central issue for student wellbeing on campus, it is paramount that the input of the mental health commissioner be considered when constructing the insurance policy.

Consultations Completed	The Medicine Representative was consulted as well as the Vice-President (Finance).

Risk Factors and Resource Implications	The Mental Health Commissioner may require additional hours added to their casual staff employment contract in the event that attending meetings of the Health and Dental Review Committee limits their ability to fulfil the functions required in their position.

Sustainability Considerations	There are no applicable sustainability considerations.

Impact of Decision and Next Steps	Decision and motion are public information, no communications strategy needed until after committee work is completed. Work will be undertaken by the Mental Health Commissioner to join meetings with the newly composed committee.
