Issue

The Students’ Society of McGill University (SSMU) Financial Ethics Committee has not met since the Winter 2017 Semester due to having been assigned a mandate that is very narrow in scope. Similarly, the Finance Committee has a poorly defined mandate and often suffers from a lack of business.

Background and Rationale

It has been highlighted over the past two academic years at Legislative Council that the Financial Ethics Committee does not meet or report. The work to ensure the social responsibility of the Society’s Investments was completed between 2013 and 2016, and maintenance and review is a task that does not require an entire committee.

The Finance Committee has a weakly defined mandate and should be empowered to properly review the financial affairs of the society on behalf of the Board of Directors and Legislative Council, as well as being bound by its terms of reference to conduct this analysis on an annual basis.

The volume of governing bodies that the Vice-President Finance sits on or oversees is also unmanageable. Currently the VP Finance is a Chair or Member of 13 committees or governing bodies. This amount is impossible to give each committee sufficient attention or guidance when combined with managing Club banking, Service Accounting, Credit Card reconciliation and other crucial day-to-day tasks. This leads to important projects like reviewing the Society’s Investments being left by the wayside for two years as has happened here.
Alignment with Mission

Leadership: these amendments will add this important task to a committee better suited to putting the time and effort into understanding the social and environmental impact of the Society’s Investments.

Service: an empowered Finance Committee will be better positioned to support and give guidance to SSMU Services, Committees and Executive Offices.

Consultations Completed

Former SSMU VP Finance (2018-2019) - regarding the effectiveness of a Financial Ethics Committee and potential changes, suggested removal in favour of a fully developed Finance Committee

Former SSMU President (2018-2019) - regarding effective committee mandates: standing committees should not be constricted to a single task. Will lead to stagnation.

Risk Factors and Resource Implications

Removing a committee with a mandate to review the social responsibility of investments has a public image implication but as this committee has not met in over two years and produced no work, this action will clearly serve to enhance the Society’s understanding of the Societal impacts of its investments. Furthermore, the roles and requirements regarding review of the investment portfolio will remain, with the same weight in SSMU’s governance documents, simply under a different Committee.

Sustainability Considerations

This action will aid the SSMU by providing up-to-date information regarding the Sustainability and Environmental impact of its investment portfolio.

Impact of Decision and Next Steps

Decision and motion are public information, no communications strategy needed until after committee work is completed. Work will be undertaken by the Vice President (Finance) and Finance Commissioner to begin meetings with the newly composed committee.
Motion or Resolution for Approval
