

Funding Applications

12/1

ExTRACKtors - $500

This application was for the purchase of t-shirts for club members of the Dentistry Faculty Running Club. They will serve to incentivize club members to join and unite the club.

McGill Iranian Student Association - $2000

This application was for an online cultural gala called Yalda night. The attendees have the option of receiving gift boxes and food deliveries during the event, and there will also be musical performances and games with prizes.

QPIRG - $400

This application was for Rad Frosh, which is an alternative frosh that focuses on social justice and equity. They had workshops regarding those issues, and provided honorariums to speakers.

Beyond Me - $332.50

This application was for two ASL interpreters for an ASL workshop hosted by Beyond Me.

McGill International Review - $2000

This application was for camera equipment to be shared among the journalists of the McGill International review, which is a journal offshoot of IRSAM (MUN).

McGill Table Tennis Club - $967.06

This application was for team uniforms that will be rented out to club members.

Collectif Commun'Art - $440

This application was for an artist exposition being hosted at a local cafe to support local artists. The organization is taking 70% of the profits, and the cafe is taking 17.25%. The partial approval reflects the annual deficit.

TedxMcGill - $207.99

This application was for the annual Ted conference at McGill. Expenses include speaker honorariums and merch. The partial approval reflects the actual event deficit.

McSway Poetry Collective - $325

This application was for a series of open mic nights, each with one feature performer. The expenses are honorariums for the feature performers.