This handbook is dedicated to the Indigenous people and students of Tiohtià:ke. We hope that looking at some of the art, pictures, and history of the First Nation people will give you an appreciation for Indigenous history at the university and serve as a reminder of the importance of solidarity with Indigenous people.

Letter from the Editors

Greetings! McGill welcomes you with open arms.

Thank you for taking the time to look at the student handbook. Here, you will find important information regarding your time at McGill, how to get involved with the SSMU, and what Montreal has to offer. You will find many resources for support of all kinds, whether it be going to the Student Wellness Hub or finding information regarding your transcript and choosing the right classes. We are here to help and guide you along the way.

This handbook was made during one of the most uncertain and worrisome times in our history. COVID-19 has meant that we have not been able to come together as a community and enjoy the McGill experience that has been so life-changing for so many students.

This upcoming school year will be my third and final year at McGill, and I can safely say that this university has been my home. Coming as a transfer student from an American university, I felt that integrating into McGill would pose some challenges but it has actually been quite the opposite. I have been fortunate enough during the COVID-19 pandemic to do what I have wanted: make new friends, take fascinating courses, and find work opportunities through the university. Do not believe that you won't find your place at McGill; you will surely find your way eventually, even during the pandemic.

As in-person classes come back in the Fall, there is much uncertainty and confusion as to how McGill will deliver classes and what kind of activities will be able to take place. It is my job to present information for incoming and returning students to understand what has and has not changed at the university. I hope that this handbook will be useful and I wish you the best of luck as we move towards a post COVID-19 environment at McGill.

Letter from the President

Greetings SSMU Members,

On behalf of the SSMU Executives, it is with great enthusiasm that I welcome you to the 2021-2022 Academic Year!

I am Darshan Daryanani, a fifth year student pursuing a Bachelors of Arts Joint Honours Degree in Political Science and International Development Studies with double minors in Communication Studies and Social Entrepreneurship. This year, I am excited to serve and represent you as President of SSMU!

After more than a year of remote learning, I hope that there is a renewed sense of excitement and safety to return to campus for an in-person student life experience. This year, we are excited to welcome you to our beloved Gerts Bar, our newly-renovated University Center, and the 3501 Peel Building, where we can finally re-engage with each other and restore the on-campus McGill experience that we have missed for so long.

Given the COVID-19 pandemic and the transition, I would like to take this opportunity to share with you the SSMU's Students First approach. As your student union, we are here to speak out for you and advocate for your interests and rights. On the local university levels, this means being your representation to the McGill administration. We will work hard for fairer academic justice processes, better quality instruction, and better services for students. On the broader level, we are also strong advocates for accessible quality public education. Together, 24,000 strong, we can move one step closer to ensure all students receive fair and equitable treatment.

Over the last four years, I have learned the significance of a shared goal and the true power of students' solidarity. I am inspired by the tenacity of students in adapting to a virtual reality, and the limitless resilience that McGill students have in the face of adversity. This year, my goal is to continue the work of building a strong community that can better advocate for students' interests, especially for those who are marginalized, and to bring back student life. After all, we, the student body, make McGill what it is.

I look forward to meeting you at our annual Activities Nights, at Gerts, and even on the bi-weekly Legislative Council! I would like to wish you all the best for this academic year!

Best wishes,

Darshan Sanju Daryanani
(he/him/il)

First Week

WELCOME FELLOW MCGILLIANS !

	Check McGill Key Academic dates both online and in this handbook. (mcgill.ca/importantdates/key-dates)
	Enter your Montreal address and emergency contact information on Minerva.
	Set up your McGill email account (mcgill.service-now.com/).
	Join the Facebook group for the entering class of 2021-2022 (facebook.com/groups/mcgill2122) and follow Campus Life & Engagement on social media (mcgill.ca/firstyear/undergraduate/pre-arrival/social-media) to stay up to date on summer programming.
	Register for McGill Pre-Registration Orientation (PRO), which is important for getting into your classes. (mcgill.ca/firstyear/undergraduate/orientation-week/mcgill-pro-pre-registration-orientation)
	Create your first-year budget by going to the Student Budget Plan (mcgill.ca/studentaid/finances/build-your-budgets). For inquiries regarding financial aid, go to the McGill's Financial Aid programs (mcgill.ca/studentaid/scholarships-aid/future-undergrads/need)
	Submit your personal documents (mcgill.ca/legaldocuments/) and final grades (mcgill.ca/accepted/nextsteps/finalmarks) to Enrollment Services. International students should also submit their study permit and CAQ (mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/pre-arrival/immigration-documents).
	Are you a non-Quebec Canadian? Notify your provincial Ministry of Health that you will be studying outside your province. You must bring your current provincial health card when you are at McGill.
	Think you may need any accommodations? We encourage you to reach out to the Office for Students with Disabilities (mcgill.ca/osd/).
	Taking prescription medication? Bring as much as you are allowed with you to Montreal, or find what you take at a pharmacy in the city. If you need the assistance of a medical professional on a regular basis, find clinicians off-campus. (wellnessmap.mcgill.ca/healthmap/)

Service Point

RESOURCES

3415 McTavish Street
(514) 398-7878
mcgill.ca/servicepoint

Service Point is your first point of contact as an incoming student at McGill. Due to the pandemic, delivery of some functions has been adapted, but its job remains the same: to assist you and answer all your questions.

How to use Service Point:

In-person appointments for incoming or returning students

Book an appointment (mcgill.ca/servicepoint/contact)

Alternatively, if you need to pick up documents, meet with the Commissioner of Oaths (for signing documents regarding your claim for Quebec Residency tuition status), or anything else related to student services, book an appointment here \(mcgill.ca/servicepoint/idcard\).

You must take these things into account before entering Service Point in person:

- Book an appointment.
- Wear a mask. You can find masks offered by the university here \(mcgill.ca/servicepoint/idcard\).
- Present your McGill ID if you have yours already. If you are going to Service Point to obtain it, then you must present a valid government-issued identification (e.g. your Study Permit).

WHAT TO DO :

Pandemic

GUIDELINES

It has been more than a year since the pandemic hit the world and McGill. Since McGill suspended in-person classes on March 13, 2020, classes have been delivered remotely. McGill has taken extra precautions to make sure that students and staff are safe. It is not yet clear exactly what student activities will take place in-person, as the situation is changing so rapidly. Here are answers to some frequently asked questions about the pandemic and McGill.

Please note that this FAQ is current to June 2021. For up-to-date information on McGill's COVID measures, visit mcgill.ca/coronavirus/.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

ACADEMICS

Are in-person classes mandatory?

For Fall 2021, McGill has promised to bring back in-person classes to the fullest extent possible under city and provincial guidelines. Students will be expected to be present on campus. However, very large lectures will likely be delivered remotely. Following provincial guidelines, students on the McGill campus will have to wear a procedural mask at all times when inside a building. If you have any concerns regarding your immunocompromised status, you can reach out to OSD to discuss learning accommodations for this upcoming year. (mcgill.ca/coronavirus/)

Why are classes offered in person this fall amidst the pandemic?

On May 31, the Quebec Minister of Higher Education indicated that universities needed to prepare for an in-person Fall term, whether it be with no physical distancing in classrooms and common areas or with one metre of distance. For Fall 2021, it will be important that laboratories, tutorials, conferences, and other activities are done with a live audience.

How can SSMU support you during the pandemic?

It's SSMU's job to ensure that students are given safe and accessible learning environments during this year of transition. If you are faced with unsafe learning conditions—either in-person or online, contact the Vice President (University Affairs) (ua@ssmu.ca), the SSMU Student Rights' Researcher and Advocacy Commissioner (srrac@ssmu.ca), or the Accessibility Commissioner (accessibility@ssmu.ca) for support. Every student is entitled to a safe and accessible learning environment, and SSMU remains in discussions with McGill about how to best ensure these conditions.

What if there is another wave of the pandemic?

The administration has said that they planned for flexibility this fall in case anything happens. McGill and its faculty are working together to prioritize what most needs to be in person. Furthermore, McGill has put many measures in place regarding the operation of its HVAC (Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning) systems that are in line with recommendations from public health agencies. Reach out to the team at SSMU if you have questions or concerns about your learning conditions. (mcgill.ca/facilities/covid-19/covid-19operation-hvac-systems/)

How will students know whether their classes are virtual?

For Fall Registration, there will be indicators on Minerva that will show what mode of delivery courses will use. Although some lectures will be online, there will still be an in-person component to most classes, so be in Montreal by September. If you're concerned this system of learning may be inaccessible to you, you can contact the Office for Students with Disabilities.

Will in-person lectures be recorded?

While some professors have done this in the past, the administration is looking at building up their recording system capacity to make it possible for more lectures to be recorded. This will depend on the needs of each faculty and instructor in the fall. While some lectures will be recorded, do not expect smaller classes to be available. SSMU remains in communication with McGill's Teaching and Learning Services (TLS) to ensure that students have accommodations that may be required.

Exams and Finals: How will they proceed?

McGill believes that for both midterms and finals in Fall 2021, there will be a combination of in-person and remote examinations to take into account the sizes of different classes. It might not be possible to administer large examination sites like the Fieldhouse for all classes.

How will students manage both in person and virtual activities?

McGill will continue to offer quiet study spaces in the libraries on campus as well as flex spaces where students will be able to participate in remote learning activities. Public health guidelines permitting, SSMU will likely also provide additional study spaces to students who want to access them. Again, stay tuned for information about the availability of spaces!

Will there be extracurriculars offered on campus?

For now, McGill is primarily focused on academic activities. Information is limited regarding extracurricular activities at the time of publication. As the situation surrounding the pandemic improves, extracurricular activities will be occurring. Keep up with the MRO Communications emails that McGill sends and the SSMU Listserv for more detailed updates about what will be occurring in the fall.

VACCINATION

Will you need to be vaccinated?

There is a high chance that all at-risk people will be vaccinated before school starts in the Fall. McGill has said that they will not require students to show proof that they have been vaccinated before starting classes. The university also is not sure whether it will have a vaccination center or not, as they are currently discussing this with the Quebec government. If you want to get vaccinated, book an appointment on the Santé Montreal website (santemontreal.qc.ca). As of May 14, 2021, all adults can register, regardless of residency or citizenship. You do not need Quebec or Canadian health insurance to book a vaccination appointment. Vaccines are free.

Will classes still occur if most students are not vaccinated?

McGill has devised five scenarios for different kinds of public health situations. However, as per the government announcements of early June, the University is now working with two plans for the fall: realistic and optimistic. The University is currently following the realistic plan based on one metre of physical distancing. It will be characterized by the mandatory use of the mask and the limitation of Non-essential gatherings and events. The optimistic plan will be triggered by the vaccination of 75% of people aged 16 to 29 years old who are living in Quebec. Conversely to the realistic plan, this plan will allow for no distancing and fewer restrictions on events. Regulations on the use of the mask are still being discussed. Details can be found here \(mcgill.ca/coronavirus/return-campus-fall-2021/return-mcgill/\). The administration believes that students will be able to do in-person classes and activities even if public health restrictions are still in place and vaccinations are still rolling out. McGill follows a framework of safety guidelines. The Quebec government has said that there is a great likelihood that most Montrealers will be vaccinated by the end of the summer. If vaccination goes according to plan, McGill students can expect to have a semester with more in-person learning than in the 2020-2021 year.

Is there any financial support for students during COVID-19?

Yes, to acknowledge the financial difficulties experienced by students during the pandemic, the Government of Quebec has announced a $100 lump sum payment per term for all full-time CEGEP and university students enrolled in the Fall 2020 and/or Winter 2021 terms.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS AND TRAVEL

What should I expect as an international student?

When coming back to Canada, follow the guidelines set by the Government of Canada so you are up to date as to what the requirements are. McGill is working closely with the federal government to make sure that international students will be able to enter Canada, have all their government documents, and understand quarantine requirements. (canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/coronavirus-covid19/students.html)

RESIDENCES

What are my options if I want to live on campus?

Student residences will be open in Fall 2021 and accommodation will be guaranteed to all eligible first-year students who have requested it.

YELLOW DANCER" BY MI'GMAQ ARTIST, JON LABILLOIS

The Hochelaga Rock

The Hochelaga Rock recognises the original Indigenous tenants of the land on which McGill sits. It is placed on the lower field.

What is SSMU?

The Student's Society of McGill University (SSMU or l'Association Étudiante de l'Université McGill (AÉUM) in French) advocates for the interests of students and provides student services on campus. It helps support and run student-led activities such as clubs, events and advocacy initiatives.

SSMU was founded in 1908 with the objective of being a student-government institution separate from the McGill administration. It is currently run by six (6) undergraduate students who are elected every spring: the President, VP External, VP University Affairs, VP Finance, VP Student Life, and VP Internal. They each hold a one year term and they act as the voices of undergraduate McGill students.

You, as a student, are able to vote for the Executives. It's their job to represent you, so you can hold them accountable! Since SSMU receives their funding through student fees, make sure to utilize the organization and its many services whenever you may need to, and always feel free to reach out to the Executives with any questions, concerns, or ideas!

Here, you will find information regarding student governance at McGill, how the SSMU works, SSMU's COVID-19 preparedness, and club and service resources.

"The pandemic has shown us how the human systems, including the academic one, can adapt so well and quickly. McGill has taught me that, whatever you choose to do in life — while relying on human connections, knowledge and systemic improvements; you can always help your community grow stronger and more resilient — no matter the circumstances."

—Audrey Nepveu-Lavoie, BA 2021

How SSMU Works

The organization has:

- 6 Elected Student Executives
- 30 Elected Student Councillors (They sit on the SSMU Legislative Council)
- 13 Elected Student Senators (They sit on the McGill Senate)
- 12 Members of the Board of Directors
- 7 Judicial Board Justices
- 21 Permanent Support Staff
- 80-90 Part-Time Support Staff

Many students work part-time at SSMU, and SSMU hires periodically throughout the year. Job opportunities will be posted on SSMU's facebook page, as well as here \(at careers.smartrecruiters.com/student-society-mcgill-university\).

GENERAL ASSEMBLY - GA

ssmu.ca/governance/general-assembly/

- General Assemblies are meetings for all SSMU Members (undergraduate students at McGill's downtown campus). Any student can introduce a motion, a proposal to be voted on which, if approved, mandates SSMU to take a specific action or adopt a certain position.
- The assembly approves and ratifies the nominations to the SSMU Board of Directors and approves the auditors, who review SSMU's finances.
- GAs are held once each Fall and Winter semester. Additional GAs can be called to vote to strike or for other special purposes.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

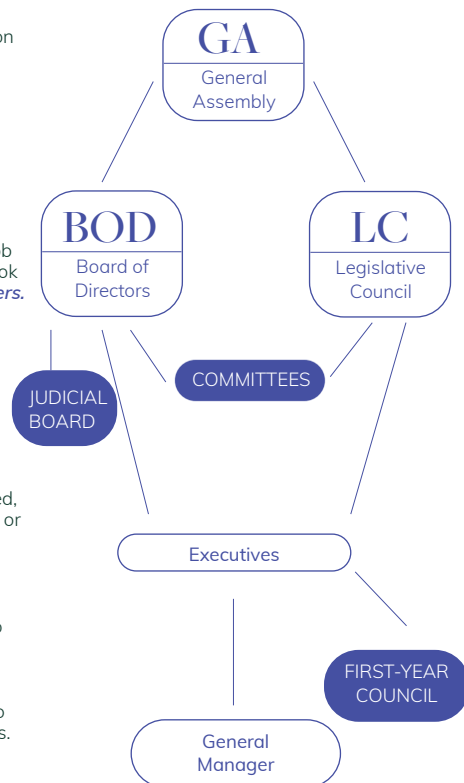

ssmu.ca/governance/board-of-directors/

- Is responsible for the human resources, legal, financial, and operational affairs of the Society.

Finances

- The BoD must approve all investments of three (3) years or longer for which there is a high degree of risk, all liquidation of investments, and the transfer of any cash in or out of the Investment Portfolio. The Board of Directors may approve specific persons to signing authority (authorization to make legal commitments on SSMU's behalf).

STRUCTURE

Governing Bodies

Governance

- Ratifies or overturns motions by Legislative Council.
- May recommend that Legislative Council initiate a Referendum question to be voted on by the student body.
- There are twelve voting members of the Board, as well as a non-voting International Student Representative. Non-voting membership also includes the General Manager, the Governance Manager, the Chair of the Board, the Recording Secretary, and the Parliamentarian.

Some of the committees of the Board of Directors are:

- Accountability Committee
- Building and Operations Management Committee
- Finance Committee
- Health and Dental Review Committee
- Human Resources (HR) Committee.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

ssmu.ca/governance/ssmu-legislative-council/

Governance

- May amend the Internal Regulations \(ssmu.ca/governance/governance-documents/\) (SSMU governing documents) by a two-thirds vote.
- SSMU Members (that is all undergraduate students on the downtown campus!) can attend all public sessions of the Legislative Council. However, only members of the Legislative Council shall be permitted to attend confidential sessions, except if an individual can provide important information and their presence is approved by a two-thirds vote of the Legislative Council.
- Members of the Legislative Council may make motions and vote on resolutions at the Legislative Council, in accordance with the SSMU's Constitution and the Internal Regulations \(ssmu.ca/governance/governance-documents/\)
- Approximately 30 Councillors.
- Executives are voting members of the Legislative Council.
- The Speaker of Council, Recording Secretary, General Manager, and the Parliamentarian are non-Voting members of the Legislative Council.

The SSMU Legislative Council has many committees that focus on specific issues that are important to students and to the SSMU. Some of these include the Affordable Student Housing Committee, the Environment Committee, the Equity Committee, the Mental Health Committee, and many more! (ssmu.ca/governance/committees/). Most SSMU Committees have seats reserved for members-at-large which any undergraduate student is eligible to fill. If you're interested in sitting on a Committee, keep an eye out in the fall - that's the typical committee recruitment period.)

JUDICIAL BOARD

ssmu.ca/governance/judicial-board/

- Provide opinions and interpretation on matters of the SSMU Constitution and/or Internal Regulations \(ssmu.ca/governance/governance-documents/\)
- Operate and report as a committee of the SSMU Board of Directors.
- The Judicial Board may establish its own rules of practice, subject to ratification by the Legislative Council and the Board of Directors.

- A committee of the Board of Directors which consists of 7 members.

- The Justices are non-paid Members of the Society and are considered as volunteers in their position.

FIRST YEAR COUNCIL (FYC)

mcgill.ca/engage/overview/student-societies/first-year-students

- FYC is a body of the SSMU responsible for services, representation and programming for first year students.
- FYC operates under the guidance of the VP (Internal Affairs).
- FYC is a great way for first year students to get involved at SSMU. Consider running for one of the many positions!

Your Role in SSMU

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

While you may feel lost in the large structure that is McGill, SSMU has many ways for you to get involved and make you feel like a valuable part of the student life.

CLUBS

Clubs and student societies are a great way to meet new friends and do something you are passionate about. For more information regarding them, go to page 21.

CAMPAIGNS

Campaigns are the engine of student activism on campus. The VP (External) is responsible for working with political and social justice campaigns on SSMU's behalf.

→ DIVEST MCGILL / FB @DivestMcGill
All Student Staff who are responsible for coordinating a committee. Commissioners report at least once per year to be the Legislative Council.

→ INDIGENOUS STUDENT ALLIANCE
(indigsa-mcgill.weebly.com)
/ FB @Indigenous.Student.Alliance
ISA is a community of Indigenous students at McGill. The ISA works to promote Indigenous community growth and to help other marginalized communities. Their goal is to foster community solidarity and human development with the university's different student organizations/groups.

→ STUDENTS FOR PEACE AND DISARMAMENT / FB @mcgillpeaceclub
Students for Peace and Disarmament (Peace club) strives to end military research at McGill and promotes a peaceful university campus.

EMPLOYMENT

ssmu.ca/about-us/jobs/

Looking for a job? SSMU has many options if you want to work part-time and are looking for flexible jobs during your studies at McGill. Work positions are available throughout the school year and into the summer. Jobs vary, but you can find positions in community work, human resources, and political activism. Applications for the upcoming school year are posted in March and April and for the summer, it usually opens in January and or February.

GETTING INVOLVED POLITICALLY: ssmu.ca/governance/

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

(ssmu.ca/governance/general-assembly/)

As a student at McGill, you have a voice and it can be heard. The GA is when members of the SSMU participate in student government by writing and voting on Motions that oblige the SSMU to take particular action. The GA this year took place in February.

SSMU COMMITTEES

(ssmu.ca/governance/committees/)

Interested in joining a committee? The SSMU Committees are governed by the Committee Terms of Reference book, which outlines the basic composition of all committees. A few of these are the Accessibility, Indigenous and Black Affairs, and Mental Health Committees.

ELECTIONS AND VOTING

(ssmu.ca/governance/elections/)

Student elections are done through SSMU, as well as through your faculty and department. Becoming a representative of the Society is an excellent way to make the voices of students and their concerns in your faculty and department heard. You can promote student rights and interests and coordinate on different projects. January is when elections are held so make sure to check your email.

Voting is an essential part in how the SSMU promotes student voices and their concerns. Make sure to vote in departmental, faculty, and SSMU elections. Without your vote the SSMU cannot create student movements and create projects, events, and services that are in your interest.

Referendums, questions put to a vote of the entire undergraduate student body, are a way to get involved in the democratic institution of the SSMU. They are held once per semester, typically in early November and early March. There are student-initiated and council-initiated referendums. For student-initiated referendums, students need to gather 100 signatures in order for a referendum question to be put on the ballot.

Getting Involved with SSMU

Student Life has been impacted greatly during the COVID-19 pandemic; student safety is the priority for the incoming executive team. The SSMU team, led by the VP (Student Life) will provide hybrid options in the fall, where activities will be offered virtually and in-person. Although it is important to note that in-person activities will be offered in a virtual platform as well, the feasibility of in-person activities will depend on the latest COVID-19 safety regulations.

It is very easy to get involved with SSMU and there is something for everyone.

CLUBS, STUDENT-RUN SERVICES, AND INDEPENDENT STUDENT GROUPS

Starting in the fall, the student group portal platform will launch. This project is a one stop shop for students to search and interact with clubs, services, and ISG'S. Not only this portal will allow students to get more involved with the McGill community, but clubs, services and ISG's will be able to submit their forms, events, and conduct their daily activities on the platform. With over 230 clubs, 15 student-run Services, and 12 Independent Student Groups, there are many opportunities to find what you like. Here are different areas of clubs that McGill offers:

*Athletic and Recreational Sports Clubs
Charity and Environment Clubs
Community Outreach and Volunteering Clubs
Fine Art, Dance, and Performance Clubs
Health and Wellness Clubs
Language and Publications
Leisure Activity and Hobby Clubs

SSMU Musicians Collective (musicianscollective.ssmu.ca/about-us/)

SSMU Musicians Collective is a musicians' network that is dedicated to promoting musical opportunities for students. It is a SSMU service that works to promote the musical community at McGill.

Arab Student Network (FB@ASNNMcGill)

The Arab Student Network is the sole official representative of Arabic culture that is secular and non-political. If you are interested in cultural, social and philanthropic events or taking Arabic language courses this is for you.

SSMU OPERATIONS

The heart of operations for SSMU is the University Centre, which is the hub of all activities in McGill's downtown campus. The building hosts Gerts (SSMU's student bar), Minicourses, and many other things.

The SSMU Operations team focuses on supporting the Centre and the many SSMU clubs and services on campus. With the help of the Events Coordinator, you will be able to organize your event to its fullest potential. It is also the event hub of the SSMU and it helps organize popular student events like Carnival and 487. There are many resources at your disposal as well, and the team will help you with club events. They are here for you, so do not hesitate to ask them questions.

INDEPENDENT STUDENT GROUPS

These are groups that exist on campus outside of the SSMU structure. These are larger than most clubs and have their own governance structures, with many being part of not-for-profit organizations.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE ABOUT BEING IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT?

Through student government, I have learned the significance of a shared goal and the true power of students' solidarity. My vision is to make a SSMU 4 YOU to: support marginalized voices, bring back student life and advocate for students' interests. After all, we, the student body, make McGill what it is. I am truly inspired by the unconditional dedication, determination and drive of student leaders who continue to strive for what's best for our peers. I am thankful for the physical, mental and emotional labour of students who continue to fight against all odds. This is what keeps me going!

WHAT WILL IN PERSON CLASSES IN THE FALL MEAN FOR YOUR POSITION?

Being back in person is very exciting! My position and all of what it entails is very oriented towards advocacy and mobilisation. An in person return to campus will allow us to coordinate with all McGill students (first year and graduating students alike) to raise awareness about topics oriented around social justice, that are crucial nowadays, past our campus and into the world. I am really excited to be able to return to in person conversations, events, and mobilisations in a safe and equitable way, ensuring that the voices of all students on campus are heard.

MY EXPERIENCE AT MCGILL DURING THE PANDEMIC

The pandemic has been very difficult for all of us, and I personally had a very hard time working online. Being so distanced from all that is real, whether it be social interaction or the ability to have proper connections in an academic environment took a real toll on me that I had a hard time addressing.

WHAT WILL IN PERSON CLASSES FOR THE FALL MEAN FOR YOUR POSITION?

The transition to in-person learning is likely going to bring some challenges, and I feel strongly that every student deserves the right to a safe and accessible learning environment. I expect to be spending a lot of time and energy advocating for learning options students might need. Although many students are thrilled to return to in-person learning, this may not be a safe option for some students yet, and their needs must be taken into account.

MY EXPERIENCE AT MCGILL DURING THE PANDEMIC

I have been a part of a student-run mutual aid initiative that provides free weekly grocery deliveries to Montreal households. I feel so lucky to have had the time to spend doing this work, and I can't imagine a better way to have spent this difficult time. When it's safe, I'm really looking forward to reconnecting with friends and spending more time on campus (maybe even at Gert's?)

WHAT WILL IN PERSON CLASSES FOR THE FALL LOOK LIKE FOR MY POSITION?

Student Life has been impacted greatly during the COVID-19 pandemic, that being said students safety will always be my priority. Although it is important to note that in-person activities will be offered in a virtual platform as well, the feasibility of in-person activities will depend on the latest COVID-19 safety regulations.

MY EXPERIENCE AT MCGILL DURING THE PANDEMIC

I have been enjoying remote learning thus far, it has given me a new outlook on education and learning. Even though I have adapted quite well to remote learning I do miss having on campus activities. Connecting with my community on a virtual platform has been a challenge, but after one year of living in these circumstances I have finally found a new normal and engaging with my community has become easier.

SARAH PAULIN
she/her/elle
VP Internal Affairs

AREA OF STUDY

Major: double majoring in English Literature and Gender, Sexuality, and Feminist Studies

WHAT WILL IN PERSON CLASSES FOR THE FALL LOOK LIKE FOR MY POSITION?

For me, the most important aspect of university is the community that surrounds and upholds the students, which is why I am so excited for the prospect of in-person classes this fall. As the rest of the executive team and I push towards the best safety measures on campus, I hope everyone will be able to enjoy a more supported school year. As excited as I am about in-person classes, the health and well-being of students will definitely come first in how the executive team and I will be advocating and working on your behalf.

MY EXPERIENCE AT MCGILL DURING THE PANDEMIC

As a first-year, I struggled a lot with online school and feeling alienated in this new and daunting environment. However, through my involvement in student life, which eventually led me to run for this position, I was able to meet some amazing people that I look forward to finally meeting in the fall semester! I am looking forward to a safe and smooth transition in the coming year which will allow you all to have the best university and social experiences!

ERIC SADER
he/him/il
VP Finance
finance@ssmu.ca

AREA OF STUDY

I major in economics and am pursuing a double minor in mathematics and history. I am specifically interested in international trade, central banking, and especially development economics. I love linear algebra and modeling, and I mostly take history classes about the Middle East and about Ancient History.

WHAT WILL IN PERSON CLASSES FOR THE FALL LOOK LIKE FOR MY POSITION?

Making sure that the finances of SSMU are able to manage the transition as sustainably as possible and to support the student initiatives needed to both guarantee the safety of students as well as help bring back the student life that has taken a backseat due to COVID.

MY EXPERIENCE AT MCGILL DURING THE PANDEMIC

COVID definitely led to school being an alienating experience, as it was for many students. Not being able to meet my professors and have the personal element of schooling be present took its toll on my ability to learn. I would not have survived the year without the extra-curriculars I was involved in, and I can't wait to help the clubs and organisations at McGill stave off the alienation that comes hand-in-hand with online schooling. I cannot recommend having outside activities enough.

McGill's History of The First Nation Peoples

Professor Suzanne Morton is the one accredited to researching the history between McGill and First Nation people in her booklet Indigenous McGill.

McGill University and the Island of Montreal sit on Indigenous lands. Throughout its history, the island of Montreal was the land of the Wendat, Anishnaabeg and Haudenosaunee. As of now, the Kanien'kehá:ka (Mohawk) are the caregivers of the land on which McGill University sits. While the Land Acknowledgement is vital in understanding the current territorial locations of the First Nation peoples, it does not give the complete context of the history and the dispossession of land that occurred with the arrival of Europeans.

In the late 1700s, Montreal had a large presence of Indigenous and Metis people, as the city was built on the fur trade. James McGill made his money as a fur trader but also through speculation on land that was taken from the Indigenous peoples. McGill's founding would not have been possible without the fur trade with Indigenous people and the dispossession of their land.

McGill and more broadly Montreal grew as Canada's most important economic city in the late 19th century. The completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway during this period was built on the expulsion of Indigenous people from their land. When William Dawson was appointed as Principal in 1855, the Executive Council of the Province of Canada agreed to a mortgaged loan of $40,000; $32,000 of that was withdrawn from the General Indian Trust Fund and $8,000 from the Six Nations of Grand River Fund. The money was never returned to those funds. Without those funds, McGill would not have become the international institution that it is now.

McGill has historically excluded Indigenous students on campus. In 1876, the federal government passed the Indian Act, which imposed an involuntary enfranchisement whereby Indigenous people would lose their Indian status to become Canadian citizens. This policy imposed an involuntary strategy of assimilation where Indigenous people would lose their "Indian status" to become full citizens of the country. This was known as enfranchisement. Because many First Nation people were not willing to give up their culture and legal identities, few Indigenous students gained a university education from McGill. Government authorities knew that imposing such measures would mean few would want to go to McGill. There were many more measures imposed after that well into the mid 20th century. Four exceptional Indigenous students graduated from McGill between the 1870s and the end of WWI.

McGill, Montreal, Quebec, and Canada as a whole have a deep history of colonialism and anti-Indigenous sentiments. Non-Indigenous graduates of McGill worked in residential and Indian Day schools as teachers and medical officers. Notable McGill alumni like Sir Wilfrid Laurier led governments that pushed for a greater expansion and consolidation of residential schools. These schools have severe negative societal and cultural impacts on Indigenous people to this day. McGill has a history of reinforcing offensive stereotypes, such as with the use of "R*dmen" for men's varsity teams. The nickname of "R*dmen" was a caricaturization of Indigenous people that appeared in the late 1920s. Racist depictions of Indigenous people were added to McGill's marching band drum during that time. McGill now is in the process of reconciliation but still has a long way to go. The university has created research and training programs for small numbers of Indigenous students and communities. However, there are currently fewer than 500 Indigenous students enrolled. McGill has to continue promoting Indigenous voices to the best of its ability and as students we must push the university to accept greater amounts of Indigenous students and provide them with greater resources and support. McGill and its students must work as a collective to reflect on the institution's history, educate ourselves on the matter of Indigenous representation on campus, and stand in solidarity with Indigenous peoples.

Timeline

LAST HUNDRED YEARS OF FIRST NATIONS HISTORY AT MCGILL

My McGill

"The biggest hurdle I faced was continuing to do my best despite going through failure, to make sure I kept my spot at McGill. I realized that many of us in the McGill community have gone through academic hardships, but we are similar in that we persisted and are on track to obtain an exceptional education."

Laura Baikie, MsC 2021

Campus Events

Given the quickly-changing state of the pandemic and government regulations, it is uncertain what campus events will look like for the school year of 2021-22. However, the SSMU team will work within federal, provincial, municipal, and McGill regulations to provide high-quality events for students!

BLACK HISTORY MONTH | FB @BHMMcGill

Early February, undecided on platform

Black History Month is co-organized by the Office of the Provost and Vice-Principal(Academic), the Black Students' Network, and the McGill African Students' Society. It aims to celebrate the achievements and contributions of Black Canadians and McGill students.

INDIGENOUS AWARENESS WEEK |

mcgill.ca/equity/initiatives-education/indigenous-education/iaw

September, platform unknown

McGill's Indigenous Awareness Week is an opportunity for students, staff, and faculty to learn more about Indigenous issues and to increase our knowledge and understanding about Indigenous peoples in Canada. You will be able to learn about Indigenous cultures of Canada and experience exchange of ideas regarding First Nations, Métis, and Inuit topics. It allows the McGill community to become active participants in advocating for Indigenous peoples.

MCGILL MENTAL ILLNESS WORKSHOP

October, online

Organized by the Student Wellness Hub and the Post Graduate Students Society, this public awareness workshop seeks to discuss the stigmas surrounding mental illnesses, what the differences between mental illness and mental health are, and address any concerns or questions students have. Local Wellness Advisors will be of assistance in guiding you.

SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS WEEK

February, platform unknown

Held by the Sexual Assault Centre of the McGill Students' Society, this is a week-long event that aims to provide a safe space for healing and to give tools to participants in order to better support survivors. It fosters a discussion around consent and respecting personal space and boundaries. A series of workshops will be hosted throughout the week.

Living in Residence

INFORMATION

mcgill.ca/students/housing

McGill's Student Housing and Hospitality Services consists of Student Housing, Food and Dining, and Accommodation and Conference Services on campus. Every year, Student Housing welcomes over 3,000 students that live in different kinds of housing at McGill. There is housing for upper-year students (Greenbriar and Hutchison) in addition to first year residences. If you are an upper-year student but wish to help first-year students transition into their life at Rez, become a Floor Fellow. Living in Rez is like no other experience at McGill. You are encouraged to meet new people, get involved in student government groups and clubs, and participate in events made to make your first year memorable. Rez can be more expensive than renting in Montreal as McGill has some of the highest priced residences in the country.

Students with disabilities can also reach out to OSD to aid with living accommodations if needed.

There are a variety of residences at McGill, but the three main categories of residences are:

1. Dormitory Style Residences: Offering single rooms and shared bathrooms with an overall great sense of community
2. Modern Dormitory Style Residences: They feature newly-renovated accommodations with double rooms and private bathrooms. They also have 24/7 front desk security.
3. Apartment style residence: Offered by Solin Hall, it has furnished apartments with private bedrooms and large common areas.

*First Peoples House Residence: Undergraduate and graduate communal living space that gives priority to Indigenous students.

QUESTIONS REGARDING LIFE IN REZ?

FLOOR FELLOWS

Floor fellows are upper-year students that have been trained to help you transition into your first year at McGill and make sure you are doing well. The Floor Fellows are a role model, a resource person, and a community builder that you can count on. They are here for you and are your point of contact if you need anything. Their job is to provide you with direct support and information.

RESIDENCE LIFE FACILITATORS

The facilitators are upper-year students that play a crucial role in coordinating the residence life at McGill. They are trained to help you adjust to life at McGill and give you the ropes of the residence community. It is also their job to organize residence events such as housing/life/residencewarz or the Faculty-in-Residence \(mcgill.ca/students/housing/life/facultyinresidence\) speaker series that are done throughout the academic year.

If you are interested and want to get more involved in your residence, sit on one of the following councils by being elected or by volunteering:

HALL COUNCIL: Every residence hall has a Hall Council and their role is to plan events and advocate for the needs and interests of their hall's residents.

INTER-RESIDENCE COUNCIL (IRC): The IRC is the body representing all students in rez and helps facilitate community through inter-residence relationships.

UNIVERSITY RESIDENCE COUNCIL (URC): This is where dialogue between the Hall Councils, the IRC, and Student Housing and Hospitality Services meet with the McGill administration.

ENVIRONMENTAL RESIDENCE COUNCIL (ERC): This council is responsible for maintaining the eco-conscience of the resilience community. It also runs one of the biggest inter-residence events called Fight the Power \(mcgill.ca/students/housing/current-residents/student-housing-sustainability/fight-power\) which is an energy-saving competition between residence buildings.

Tip: If you have any questions as a first year regarding student housing go to the ASK McGill \(ask.mcgill.ca/\) interactive online Q&A tool to get your questions answered.

If you are not a first year student and or wish to find a place to live close to McGill, request to join the McGill Off-Campus Housing \(facebook.com/groups/Mcgill.offcampus.housing/\) page.

Places to eat with your One card

Not only is your OneCard your ID as a student but it can be used to buy food on and off campus. If you are interested in what is offered on campus, check out the oneCard webpage to find out more regarding the Mandatory Meal Plan and the over 20 locations you can eat on campus including the dining halls.

With your OneCard you are able to go to other locations outside McGill and pay for your food using your card. Here are some of the restaurants you can go to:

International Students

McGill is home to more than 10,000 international students, which will consist of 12,228 students in 2020-21 coming from over 150 countries. It is not easy to move from a new country, especially when going to a country where the province, Quebec, is different from the Rest of Canada. To help you, there are many on and off campus resources that will help you transition into your new life in Montreal.

RESOURCES ONLINE

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SERVICES |
mcgill.ca/internationalstudents
Brown Building (3600 Rue McTavish), suite 5100 | (514) 398 - 4349

The International Student Services (ISS) is the first resource to use for any questions you have as an international student. If you need help with your immigration documents, the ISS and its staff are here to help. Such services include but are not limited to, immigration advising (Visa, CAQ, study permits), international student health insurance and work permit information.

INTERNATIONAL BUDDY PROGRAM |

Transfer Students

As a transfer student, you might have many questions regarding how you transfer credits from your previous university to McGill, how you make new friends, or where to live in Montreal. It is always daunting going to another university in the middle of your college experience. McGill has resources available to make your transition smoother.

Transfer Student Orientation & Information Session |
mcgill.ca/importantdates/channels/event/mature-re-entry-and-transfer-student-orientation-328719
August 25, 2021, platform unknown

As a transfer student, this orientation at the beginning of the school year will give you a strong start to your McGill career by informing you of the many resources and services that are available in the university. This is a great way to meet people who have transferred from other universities as well. To register click here \(mcgill.ca/firstyear/undergraduate/orientation-week/fall/\).

Transfer Students and Credits |
mcgill.ca/transferecredit/prospective

To find out whether or not the college credits you took at your previous university will be transferable to McGill, check the Course Equivalency System \(mcgill.ca/transferecredit/course-equivalency\) that helps you search and review course equivalencies from the college courses you have taken already and see if McGill offers similar classes. You may be qualified for

If you have taken university-level courses that do not appear in the equivalency database you may still qualify for transfer credits. Through the Course Equivalency System you can also submit requests for potential equivalencies that are not listed. You can also request a reassessment of expired equivalencies. If you wish to talk to someone for any faculty specific transfer credit questions contact your faculty Student Affairs Office \(mcgill.ca/students/advising/advisordirectory\). If you have any general transfer credit questions as a new McGillian go to Service Point \(mcgill.ca/servicepoint/contact\).

Communauté Francophone

LE FRANÇAIS À MCGILL

L'Université McGill étant le bastion académique anglophone de Montréal, il serait facile de penser que le français est persona non grata entre ses murs. Détrompez-vous, McGill ne renie pas ses racines montréalaises et québécoises. Sa population francophone en est la preuve. En effet, 20% des étudiant-e-s et 21% du personnel déclarent avoir le français comme langue maternelle.

Session d'accueil - Étudiant-e-s francophones
(mcgill.ca/firstyear/undergraduate/orientation-week/fall/francophone)
Le mercredi 25 août 2021

Cette session de bienvenue sera aussi l'occasion de rencontrer d'autres étudiants francophones. Elle sera suivie de différents ateliers où vous serez fournis des outils utiles essentielles pour réussir à McGill.

ÉTUDIER EN FRANÇAIS

En plus de pratiquer le français sur votre temps libre, vous pouvez même l'intégrer à vos études! Le Département des littératures de langue française, de traduction et de création (faculté des arts) (mcgill.ca/litterature/fr) est en effet entièrement francophone. Au niveau facultaire, la Faculté de droit (mcgill.ca/law/) est entièrement bilingue et vous offre la possibilité de suivre des cours en français. Pareillement, la Faculté des sciences de l'éducation (mcgill.ca/dise/teachercert/kelempif) propose une majeure en pédagogie de l'Immersion Française et le Campus Outaouais (mcgill.ca/campusoutaouais/fr) de la Faculté de médecine et des sciences de la santé délivre une formation médicale entièrement en français. Les autres facultés ne sont pas en reste et ont toujours de nouvelles opportunités francophones. Pour plus d'informations, contactez les équipes administratives de la faculté en question.

VOUS POUVEZ MÊME SOUMETTRE VOS TRAVAUX EN FRANÇAIS!

Submitting in French |
mcgill.ca/students/srr/academicrights/course/french

Pour tous les cours - à l'exception des cours dont la maîtrise d'une langue est un objectif - vous avez le droit de soumettre vos travaux écrits en français plutôt qu'en anglais. Il s'agit d'un droit inscrit dans la Charte des droits de l'étudiant que vous pouvez invoquer à n'importe quel stade de vos études. Parlez-en à votre instructrice-ur!

OBTENEZ DE L'AIDE PERSONNALISÉE

Étudiants francophones |

Jobs on Campus

Job searching in Montreal as a student at McGill can be difficult especially when you do not speak French. However, there are many jobs and services available on campus for students. To find out more, check the Career and Planning Service (CAPS) and if you are an international student go check the ISS to see what you need to work in Canada.

THE CAREER PLANNING SERVICE mcgill.ca/caps

Bown Building (3600 Rue McTavish), suite 2200
Macdonald Campus (Centennial Centre, 21111 Rue Lakeshore, Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue)
(514) 398 - 3304

The McGill Career Planning Service (CaPS) helps students in finding their career search for part-time and permanent jobs, internships, and summer jobs. CaPS provides workshops, individual advising, a comprehensive job posting service, and an extensive Career Resource Centre. If you are interested in setting up an appointment with a career counsellor set up a my future account here (caps.myfuture.mcgill.ca).

JOB OPPORTUNITIES ON CAMPUS

WORK STUDY

WHAT: A need-based system for part-time work (clerical, research, technical, library jobs, McGill-affiliated hospitals and organizations). Work study is usually done throughout the school year, but you can find summer positions also.

WHO: To be part of the Work Study program, you must be a full-time student, in satisfactory academic standing, and have applied for the maximum government aid that you are eligible for. Contact the Student Aid Office for more information here (mcgill.ca/studentaid).

HOW: The work study application opens on July 1 in Minerva. However, students can submit their application throughout the year. If you want more options, make sure to apply before September. If you are accepted into the program you will apply separately to the jobs available.

FACULTY ASSOCIATIONS (www.mcgill.ca/engage/overview/employment-internships-research/employment)

WHAT: Faculty associations (Engineering, Management, Law, Medicine, Internship Offices Network) hire students throughout the school year and in the summer.

BUT: Because the budgets are constricted, some positions will be volunteer-based.
HOW: Click on the link above and scroll down the different faculty websites for more details.

SSMU (careers.smartrecruiters.com/StudentSocietyMcGillUniversity)

WHAT: SSMU hires many students throughout the school year and in the summer for a wide array of jobs.

WHO : Any qualified student can apply. SSMU has jobs regarding political activism, event management, human resources, communications, and much more.

HOW: Job Postings for the next academic year are put out in March and April and applications for summer positions open in January and February. For external job postings click on the SSMU Marketplace webpage here \(smu.ca/marketplace/ad-category/jobs/\)

STUDENT HOUSING (mcgill.ca/students/housing/life)

WHAT: McGill hires Flor Fellows and Residence Life Facilitators every year. The Floor Fellow lives and guides first year students in rez, while Residence Life Facilitators organize events for residences throughout the school year.

HOW: Applications for Floor Fellows opens in late December and for Residence Life Facilitators, around March and April.

RESEARCH POSITIONS (mcgill.ca/caps/students/job/research)

WHAT: If you are interested in doing research in a field, look for professors you have established a relationship with and ask them if they need someone to help them for their projects as a research assistant. There is also independent research funding that you can look into.

HOW: The Arts Undergraduate Research Internship Awards (ARIA) offers summer research stipends for students that are doing research work for a faculty. The Science faculty also offers research awards which you can check here \(mcgill.ca/science/research/undergraduate-research/sura\). Also, QPIRG offers research stipends for projects on social justice.

ATHLETICS (mcgillathletics.ca/sports/2012/11/2/1102123904.aspx)

WHAT: McGill Athletics requires students to referee and supervise sports facilities during the school year and also offers summer jobs.

HOW: If interested, visit Client Services at the Currie Gym or check the website linked above. Jobs are posted through the year but many go up at the end of January.

Volunteering

ENGAGE MCGILL (mcgill.ca/engage/)

McGill offers a wide variety of services to get students involved in university and student-led groups and events on both campuses.

MYINVOLVEMENT (mcgill.ca/involvement/myinvolvement)

MyInvolvement is an online space where you can find out about learning opportunities outside of the classroom. You can access Student Services' workshops as well as skill-building activities. You find out more about events, workshops, and volunteer opportunities. MyInvolvement also tracks and records your participation for your co-curricular record.

THE CAREER PLANNING SERVICES (mcgill.ca/caps/students/job/volunteer) Go to page 48 for contact information!

The CaPS website is a great tool for finding volunteer opportunities and for tips for determining if a position is fit for you. If you are interested in international volunteering, check what they have to offer!

VOLUNTEER BUREAU OF MONTREAL (cabm.net)

The Volunteer Bureau of Montreal has been pushing for volunteers in the Montreal area for over 80 years. They have many opportunities on their website and more information about organizations you can get involved in.

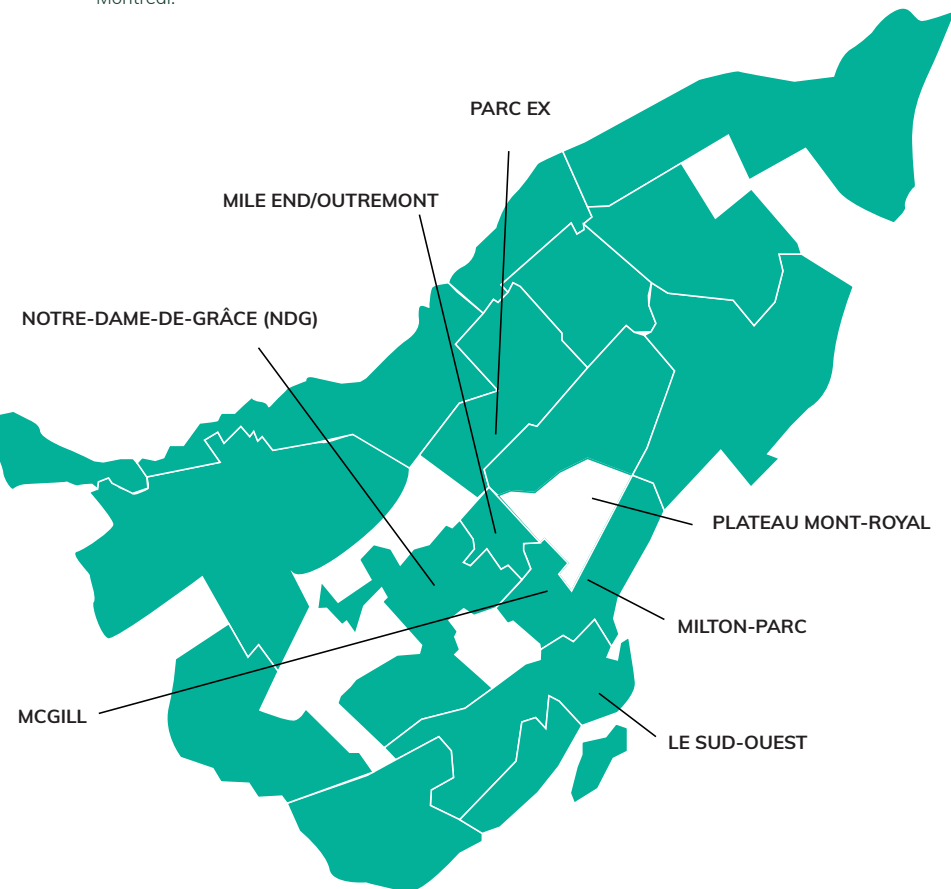

My McGill

"Going from an all night celebration with friends and a midnight walk in rainy streets to a night of midterm study and a bad Halloween movie on Netflix party with a pound of candy is as different as it can get but both give you great memories and a funny stomach."

Juliette Chesnel, BA 2021

Neighbourhood Guide

Have you not left the McGill bubble? What are you waiting for? It is time to explore Montreal! The city is ranked as one of the best cities for students to live and study in. Take advantage of all the opportunities Montreal has to offer. Explore the different neighborhoods of the city, whether it is trying the bagels of St-Viateur in the Mile-End, having a picnic at Parc La Fontaine in the Plateau, or visiting the old French colonial architecture of the Vieux-Port, there is so much to visit in such little time. Here is a short guide of what neighborhoods to visit during your time in Montreal.

MILTON-PARC

miltonpark.org

Area: Rue University to St-Laurent, Sherbrooke to Des Pins

Milton-Parc is a great place to live if you are a student at McGill. It is very close to campus, downtown, and the Montreal nightlife. In this neighborhood, there are many local grocery stores, cafes, restaurants, and boutiques. Rent in the area can be quite expensive given that many students wish to live here. If you are interested in living in Milton-Parc, consider joining the Milton Park Citizens' Committee \(ccmp-mpcc.com/en/home/\) or volunteer in the neighbourhood! Most McGillians will stay in Montreal for their undergraduate degree, so think about giving back to the area while you are here.

PLATEAU MONT-ROYAL

montreal.ca/le-plateau-mont-royal

Area: Rue St. Laurent to Papineau, Sherbrooke to Mont-Royal

This largely francophone neighborhood is a young and student-friendly borough that is filled with casual cafes, parks, theaters, bars, and clubs. Similar to Milton-Parc, there are many students living here and this is reflected in the prices of rent. If you want a little separation from your student and social life, bus lines, bike lanes, and the metro make it easy to make it on campus. You will be easily entertained in this neighborhood, with contemporary galleries and theaters and of course the Mont Royal Park being nearby.

NOTRE-DAME-DE-GRÂCE (NDG)

montreal.ca/en/cote-des-neiges-notre-dame-de-grace

Area: West of Campus

Notre-Dame-de-Grace is just west of campus and offers a direct commute by way of the 24 bus line. Also referred to as NDG, it is a fairly anglophone community but is a multicultural residential neighborhood that offers independent shops, long-running restaurants, and take out spots. It has decent rent prices and many families live in the neighborhood. If you are looking for a place that is easy going and where you can enjoy going to parks and cafes, NDG may be for you. If you want to explore, check out the Saint Joseph's observatory, it is Canada's largest church and the tallest building in Montreal!

LE SUD-OUEST

montreal.ca/le-sud-ouest

Area: Saint-Henri, Griffintown, Little Burgundy

Le Sud-Ouest centres on the Lachine Canal and consists of great parks and a popular cycling path. It is known for having great food and drink spots including the Atwater Market where you can find gourmet food shops. If you wish to go to nice restaurants, artisan cafes, and bars, head to Notre-Dame Street West. Unfortunately, like many other areas of the city, le Sud-Ouest is facing greater gentrification. As a student, you can live in this neighborhood through the McGill residence Solin Hall and visit shows at Theatre Corona. If you are a fan of music and its history, check the Musée des Ondes Emile Berliner!

MILE END/OUTREMONT

montreal.ca/outremont

Area: North of the Plateau to Van Horne, East of Parc is the Mile-End, while west is Outremont.

These two neighborhoods comprise a great diversity of young professionals and 2LGBTQIA+ communities, and is the center of Montreal's Hasidic Jewish population. It is a vibrant community but also is impacted by gentrification and rent hikes. There are many local businesses and landmarks, such as St. Viateur and Fairmount for old-school bagels; the favourite cafe of McGill alumni Arcade fire, Olimpico; and Montreal's staple bookshop, Drawn and Quarterly. While it is a bit farther from campus, living further away can help separate your academic life from your student one. It will allow you to see a different part of the city altogether.

Tip: If you wish to visit more of the city, try heading to a cafe or library in a neighborhood you have not gone to before. Montreal has great cafes, restaurants and libraries where you can study so there are many options for you. If you have not done so yet, go to the Bibliothèque et Archives nationales du Québec, a great library location if you want to study outside of McGill's libraries.

PARC EX

montreal.ca/villeray-saint-michel-parc-extension

Area: Between the Outremont railway and Highway 40

This neighborhood is seeing a lot of hurdles, with the Mile End's popularity rising and demand for more space. Working class and migrant families are being pushed out of Parc-Ex, which for many decades has enjoyed affordable rent prices. Parc-Ex is one of Canada's most diverse neighborhoods but also one of its poorest. L'Université de Montreal has built a new campus in the southern borders which is bringing in an influx of students in the area for the next few years. Parc-Ex is also home to the Marché Jean-Talon which is open year-round and a great location to get your local products from local businesses!

OTHER NEIGHBORHOODS

mtl.org/en/explore/neighbourhoods

Montreal has a total of 19 boroughs and each has their own particular character. You will find neighborhoods that will fit what you are looking for whether it be for affordable rent and reasonable commutes. Other areas that are worth visiting that were not mentioned above are Cote-des-Neiges, Rosemont, Verdun, and Hochelaga-Maison. If you go farther east into the city, it will tend to be more Francophone while the West Island will tend to be more Anglophone.

Also, make the best out of your time in Montreal! This city is world-class, and while it can be easy to get caught up with your academic life, you also live in a great city. Remember to take a break from your studies once in a while and explore all the great locations, whether it be the Old Port or Downtown. Montreal has an urban geography that differs greatly from most cities in the world so make the most of it!

What is Gentrification?

Gentrification is the process of changing the character of a neighborhood to cater for more affluent residents and businesses. It often sees communities of colour and/or working class families being kicked out of their neighborhoods as they are priced out of the area. This creates greater class divisions and housing insecurity.

Getting Around

PUBLIC TRANSIT

stm.info/en

The Société de transport de Montréal (STM) is the public transport agency which operates transit buses and the metro across Montreal. There are four metro lines: Blue, Yellow, Orange, and Green. The Orange and Green lines run through downtown and are usually the busiest but also close to campus. Each metro station will have machines for you to use debit or visa to buy tickets. The teller at the gates only accepts cash however. Make sure that once you have your receipt and ticket to hold on to it as STM officers will sometimes stop you to ask for your proof of purchase.

COSTS

$ 3.50: A one-way ticket for the metro or bus (for the bus you will need exact change)

$ 6.50: A night pass with unlimited use between 6pm to 5 a.m.

$52.00: Cost of a monthly full-time student pass for those of all age groups. You can buy this pass through Minerva.

RUN TIMES

All metros open at the same time, 5:30 am, but each closes at different schedules. If you wish to see what time the last train leaves, go to the station page on the STM website. Most buses run 24/7, however, bus numbers change after 1:00 am, as night routes differ.

HOURS OF OPERATION

The STM'S "Between Stops" service provides women travelling alone at night with free travel on all bus lines. You can tell the driver of the bus when you would like to get off the bus and they will drop you off as close to the desired location you want. The "Between Stops" services operates at the following times:
Starting at 7:30 pm from August 30 to April 30
Starting at 9 pm from May 1 to August 29

We encourage you to check the STM website for the metro and bus schedules at stm.info/en

BIKING

mcgill.ca/transport/cycling

As you may have noticed, Montreal is a very bike-friendly city with many big streets having their own lanes that are separated by concrete. While it may seem inconvenient to use a bike during the winter season, if you are willing to buy a few extra parts, then you can extend your bike use into the winter months.

FIXING YOUR BIKE

facebook.com/TheFlatBikeCollective

Don't know how to fix your bike? Reach out to the Flat Bike Collective! FBC is free and open to everyone. However, it is a hands-off approach. Collective members will teach you how to fix your bike and will give you the parts that you will need. If you want your bike fixed by a specialist, then consult Bikurious on Ontario Street.

OWNING A BIKE

You can get a secondhand bike on Craigslist, Kijiji, or a McGill Facebook group, but be careful of scammers that try to re-sell stolen bikes. For those wanting new bikes, there are plenty of shops that have affordable to expensive prices. If you own a bike make sure to invest in a good bike lock as Montreal is infamous for bike thieves.

RENTING A BIKE

mcgill.ca/transport/cycling/bixi

McGill offers a 15% discount for an annual BIXI membership for students. However, you can also rent by the hour, daily, or more. Throughout the summer, they offer free rides the last Sunday of every month. You need a credit card to rent these cruising bikes, so make sure to check out their website for more info.

CARS

Driving in Montreal can be difficult but can be practical for some occasions like day trips, large shopping missions, or moving. Having a car can be much easier and practical than having to deal with public transit at times

RENTING

mcgill.ca/travelservices/transport/book-vehicle

There are high premiums for drivers who are under the age of 25 at traditional companies. Make sure to check the link above for legal information and advice for McGill students. You can also look at car rental membership for short distances like Communauto which is perfect for day trips or bulk shopping.

OWN

<https://www.agencemobilitedurable.ca/en>

If you wish to own your own car then make sure to check out the parking rules and costs in your area and make sure to consider whether you really want to drive in Montreal's roads (potholes, construction, ice, etc).

CAB

In the city, the base fee for taxis is around $3.45 plus $1.70 per kilometer. Uber is also available in Montreal but can be expensive depending on the time and day. SSMU's Drivesafe, which operates Thursday-Sunday, will get you to your destination for free!

Milton Parc

NOT THE 'GHETTO'

Milton Parc is the neighborhood that sits directly east of campus. It is home to thousands of McGill students but many students know the neighborhood in the misnomer of "the McGill Ghetto." This label is problematic, as it erases the long and complex history of the neighborhood and its long-term residents.

There are almost 12,000 residents in the area and a quarter of them are McGill students. Although many residents are students of McGill, we do not own this neighborhood. Students do leave a huge impact on the lives of many permanent residents so it is up to us to be courteous and respectful of the others living in the neighborhood. Here is some information on the history and activism of Milton-Parc. Look into what the SSMU and the university are doing to maintain and build stronger relationships with citizen organizations.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Milton-Parc is one of the oldest neighborhoods in the city and is a landmark heritage site of Montreal. The first houses to pop up came in the late 18th century. Milton-Parc became an official neighborhood by the end of the 19th century. Milton Parc is known to have the largest concentration of cooperative housing in Canada. More than 1,500 people in the borough live in community-owned and operate housing. This network consists of 616 apartments, 148 buildings (2 commercials and 146 residential), and houses people from over 50 countries. Many of the commercial buildings in the neighborhood are owned and operated by the community. When there is a business in the area that goes up for sale, the community has first claim before it can list on the open market.

ACTIVISM

In the 1960's and 1970's, the Milton-Parc Citizens' Committee fought aggressively against gentrification and over-development in the neighborhood. This led to the preservation of many of the buildings we still see today. The organization Solidarité Milton-Parc works with the boroughs First Peoples' houseless population, providing meals and community. If you wish to, check out their website for ways to support their projects.

Last August, community organizations lobbied the city to use the Old Royal Victoria Hospital and the Hotel-Dieu as community housing spaces. Luckily, that month it was announced that the Royal Victoria Hospital would be converted into a resource for Montreal's homeless population.

MCGILL'S ROLE

In 2010, the McGill administration, the MPCC, and the SSMU created the C.A.R.E (Community Action and Relations Endeavour) agreement. The document outlines how we can be better neighbours as well as the expectations held by and for each stakeholder group (students, administration, and citizens). You can find out more information on the C.A.R.E agreement found here: externalaffairs.ssmu.ca/community-affairs/c-a-r-e-agreement.

The SSMU also hires a Community Affairs Commissioner through the portfolio of VP (External Affairs). The Community Affairs Commissioner acts as a liaison between citizen groups, the SSMU, and the McGill administration. To get in touch or volunteer, email them at commaffairs@ssmu.ca.

The French Language in Montreal

Learning French can be very useful in Montreal. While most areas near or around campus are going to be primarily Anglophone, Montreal as a whole is still very much a Francophone city. There are many resources that McGill students can use to learn French no matter their skill level. Practice makes perfect, so keep speaking it wherever you can and eventually your accent and mastery of the language will get better.

TIPS ON LEARNING FRENCH

MEDIA

One great way to learn French is to hear it through shows on streaming services, social media, and through television. Putting subtitles on French shows is a great way to learn how the language is spoken by native speakers.

CONVERSATIONS

Practice your French through simple and small conversations. This could be with your Francophone friends, with the cashier, or at your local grocery store or dépanneur.

FRENCH RADIO

If you want to learn what the Montreal accent is like this is the best way to do it. Tune in to Radio Canada 95.1 FM, Le Québec Maintenant 98.5 FM, Or CKAC Radio Circulation Montréal 730 AM.

IMMERSION PROGRAM

Quebec Studies at McGill offers a five week summer intensive program designed to improve your French language skills and teach you about Quebec history. Explore is also a summer immersion program taking place in Montreal, Quebec City, Trois-Rivières, and many other locations across the province and Canada.

TAKE A FRENCH CLASS

McGill classes are a great way to improve your grammar. SSMU offers a French conversational MiniCourse (see page 70) on evenings and weekends so you can practice your skills and also meet new people! Living Off Campus

Many McGill students decide to live off campus during their undergraduate degree. It is a great way to help make Montreal your home and it gives you a true feel for the city. While this is a great way to live in Montreal as a student, it can pose some legal and personal challenges as well (renting, living on your own for the first time). For all of your questions, visit the LikeHome website \(likehome.info\). It is a resource managed by two student housing organizations in Montreal - UTILE and HOJO.

UNDERSTANDING THE NUMBERS

mcgill.ca/students/housing/offcampus/rent/info

In Montreal, apartments are classified by the total number of rooms in an apartment, while a bathroom is counted as a half room.

Generally speaking:

- 1 ½: A small studio with just one main room. This includes a kitchenette and a bathroom.
3 ½: A larger apartment that usually contains a bedroom, kitchen, living room, and a bathroom.
4 ½: An apartment containing two bedrooms, a living room, and one washroom (although many landlords will call small study spaces a second bathroom).

SUBLETTING

tal.gouv.qc.ca/en/assignment-of-a-lease-or-subleasing

Most Montreal leases last twelve months, so many students sublet their apartments for the summer. However, there are usually more people trying to sublet than those looking to rent short-term, so start looking for subletters early or reduce the price of the rent to intrigue subletters. You will need to notify your landlord before you let someone sublet your place, but they cannot reject a sublet without cause. Advertise in as many places as possible, with clear descriptions and photos. Try Facebook Marketplace for example.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

fb.com/groups/Mcgill.offcampus.housing

The Off-Campus Connects program helps ease the transition into university and build a commuter community by hosting events and providing support.

WHERE TO LOOK

You can find apartments online at Craigslist, Kijiji, McGill Off-Campus Housing, or on various Facebook housing groups. There are also private housing groups for specific communities, like Chez Queer for LGBTQ+ renters. Keep an eye out for "à louer" signs and ask friends if they know of any places for rent.

TIPS FOR FINDING AN APARTMENT

- 1. Live with roommates to cut costs! Even if you are friends, make sure to have to-the-point conversations about what you need in your home to be happy, including noise levels, cleanliness, how you will address conflict, and you will communicate desires to socialize or be left alone.
- 2. Leases generally start on the first of the month. Make sure to start looking for a place at least two to three months before you want your lease to start. May 1, July 1, and September 1 are common start dates.
- 3. Montreal has some of the lowest rent of any city in North America. Anything above $700 if you have roommates is considered pricey.
- 4. Think outside of the bubble of the Milton-Parc community! There are plenty of lovely (and cheaper) neighborhoods to explore in Montreal. Check out page 52-53 for more information on what neighborhood you want to live in.
- 5. Check the blacklist! The Régie du logement, Quebec's rental board, also maintains a blacklist of landlords to prepare you for who to avoid! Find the list at tal.gouv.qc.ca.

Living Off Campus

TENANT'S RIGHTS

mcgill.ca/students/housing/offcampus/legal/rights

It is crucial to know the law and your rights to prevent exploitation. Many landlords get away with illegal measures because students do not know their rights as tenants.

You are entitled to...

TRANSFER YOUR LEASE.

You can assign it to new tenants during the lease term.

ASK YOUR LANDLORD TO MAKE NECESSARY REPAIRS.

The landlord is responsible for repairing defects in the apartment, and is also responsible for appliance repairs if the appliances are included with the rent.

TWENTY-FOUR HOURS' NOTICE IF YOUR LANDLORD NEEDS TO VISIT THE APARTMENT.

Or, if they want to show potential new tenants your place, they are required to respect your privacy (although this does not necessarily mean twenty-four hours notice).

BE INFORMED IN WRITING THREE TO SIX MONTHS BEFORE YOUR LANDLORD INTENDS TO RAISE YOUR RENT.

You have thirty days to respond. (no response means no agreement).

NOT VETO TO PAY A SECURITY DEPOSIT, LAST MONTH'S RENT, KEY DEPOSIT, FINDER'S FEE, OR ANY OTHER EXTRAS.

The only advanced payment a landlord can ask for is the first month's rent.

KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION LIKE YOUR BANK ACCOUNT NUMBER OF SOCIAL INSURANCE NUMBER PRIVATE.

However, a landlord can ask for a background check.

RESOURCES

If you are struggling to understand the process of renting, signing a lease, or what your rights are, these are the places to get help.

RÉGIE DU LOGEMENT

tal.gouv.qc.ca/en

The Régie is a specialized section of the Quebec government that oversees rental housing information and disputes. They are a great resource for understanding your legal rights, and are also the organization you would go to file any complaints against a landlord.

MCGILL STUDENT HOUSING

mcgill.ca/students/housing/offcampus

This is a great resource when looking for apartments and understanding your rights. They also have an apartment listings section to help students in their search for a place to live.

LEGAL INFORMATION CLINIC MCGILL

facebook.com/licm.cijm/
680 Rue Sherbrooke Street Ouest, suite 150
(514) 398 - 6792

The LICM provides court accompaniment to the Régie du logement; volunteers will accompany you to court, provide moral support, and explain procedure. The LICM also offers information regarding tenant rights.

HOUSING AND JOB RESOURCE CENTRE

csu.qc.ca/services/hojo
Although located on the Concordia campus, you do not have to be a student there to get help from the HOJO. It is a great one-stop shop for all your housing related questions. They will provide you with legal advice, as well as many forms you may need. Even if you are not having immediate issues with your rental location, it is a good idea to get their advice before signing anything!

Indigenous Art and Culture in Montreal

Montreal has a plethora of great indigenous art that consists of Inuit, First Nation, Metis, and Aboriginal art. Many of them are located in museums, art galleries, and shops. Take the time to explore the great culture of these people as you live on the traditional territory of the Kanien'kehà:ka.

INDIANICA
indianica.com
79 St-Paul Street East,

For more than 40 years Indianica has focused on selling contemporary Native art and crafts made by artists from Quebec and North America. It tries to share the history and culture of Canadian culture through handmade craft items and through its collaboration with hundreds of artisans. It is a gift shop in the Old Port so make sure to visit it!

GALERIE D'ART INUIT IMAGES BORÉALES
imagesboreales.com
4, rue St-Paul Est

Founded in 2010, the Galerie Images Boreales is proud to represent nearly 200 of Canada's most established Inuit artists from all over Nunavut. It works with young emerging artists by giving them a promising future by helping them in their career development. Also located in the Old Port.

DAPHNE
daphne.art
5842 St Hubert St

Daphne is a relatively new non-profit indigenous artist-run centre committed to serving the needs of emerging, mid-career, and established indigenous artists through exhibitions and associated programming, workshops, residencies and curatorial initiatives. Daphne encourages a culture of peace through critical, respectful exchange with indigenous and non-indigenous peers and audiences.

HÉRITAGE FUR AND INUIT ART GALLERY
heritagegallery.ca
30 St.Paul Est Old Montreal

This art gallery is a family-run gallery located in the Old Port. It is one of the premier fur and gift stores in Montreal. Its collections includes furs, fur accessories, native arts and craft and focuses primarily on Canadian heritage. It has a true appreciation of native art and is a must visit.

Off Campus Jobs

Looking for an off-campus job? Some will be harder to find in the city if you are not bilingual but this should discourage you as there is plenty of work in Montreal. Check out these resources for a few leads.

CAPS: MYFUTURE
Caps.myfuture.mcgill.ca

MyFuture is the place for career-related events and job postings for McGill students. Sign up for events like panels and workshops on myFuture. Jobs, internships, and volunteer opportunities are also listed here. For easy access, enter your McGill email at the link above.

FACULTIES AND JOB AFFAIRS
CaPS provides a comprehensive listing of upcoming career fairs at mcgill.ca/caps/students/services/careerfairs.

You can also contact your individual faculty to see if they will be hosting a career fair.

The faculties of Engineering and Management both have job fairs and career workshops throughout the year, featuring some very renowned companies. The Arts and Science faculties also have grad and career fairs in the fall. The Arts Internship Office helps place students in great positions over the summer (mcgill.ca/arts-internships).

FACEBOOK GROUPS
There are groups on Facebook that only those with a McGill email can access. One of these is Jobs and Internships, a group devoted to posting job opportunities (from one-offs to full-time positions) from all over. Check frequently to find a position that works well with your student lifestyle.

My McGill

This section will get you started on understanding your role as a student at McGill. Find out more about McGill's history, as well as its future in sustainability. Learn about how McGill's structure and governance affects you, especially your rights and responsibilities!

"The biggest hurdle I faced was American intellectual hegemony through academic practices in writing. I see myself within the larger McGill community as a member of the First Peoples House who found solace from that hurdle with Indigenous storytellers and knowledge-holders."

- Jennifer Craig , PhD Anthropology, 2021

Governance

STRUCTURE

Although McGill's governance structure is complex, your individual interests should be the top priority. Here is a brief snapshot of this structure and how advocating for your needs fits in.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

The BoG is McGill's highest governing body. It has twenty-five members, twelve of whom do not have formal affiliations with the university. They have general jurisdiction and final authority over the academic, business, and financial affairs of McGill. The BoG meets six times throughout the year and has two voting student members, one from the SSMU and the other from the Post-Graduate Student's Society (PGSS). Representatives of the Macdonald Campus Students' Society (MCSS) as well as the McGill Association of Continuing Education Studies (MACES) have observer seats.

SENATE

The Senate handles general control and supervision over academic affairs of the university. The composition and responsibilities of the Senate are governed by the Statutes of McGill University, and the proceedings are governed by the Standing Rules of Procedure. It is also responsible for many committees that have student representatives - more information on the committees of Senate can be found here (mcgill.ca/senate/committeesofsenate).

There are fourteen undergraduate student representatives in the Senate who are elected through their faculty or department student associations. The SSMU Senators can be found here (ssmu.ca/senators). All undergraduate senators meet weekly in Senate Caucus, led by the SSMU VP-UA.

P7

The P7, also known as the Principals' Seven, consists of the Principal and the Chief of Staff, the Vice-Principals, General Counsel, the Secretary General, and the Deputy Provost (Student Life & Learning). Some of these roles are:

PRINCIPAL AND VICE-CHANCELLOR

Currently held by Suzanne Fortier, this is the chief executive officer of the university. The Principal works to improve academic excellence in teaching, research, and service. She represents McGill to external bodies domestically and abroad.

PROVOST AND VICE-PRINCIPAL (ACADEMIC)

Currently held by Christopher Manfredi, the Provost and Vice Principal (Academic) is the chief academic officer of the University and is in charge of the development, implementation and assessment of all academic policies and programs. The position also oversees budget planning and allocations.

VICE-PRINCIPALS

There are currently seven VPs and their duties range from Communications & External Relations to Research & Innovation.

DEPUTY PROVOST (STUDENT LIFE & LEARNING)

Currently held by Fabrice Labeau, the Deputy Provost (Student Life & Learning) is the senior administrator who is responsible for implementing policies, actions, and decisions that help improve student life and learning at McGill. This includes Student Services, Athletics and Recreation, and Student Housing and Hospitality Services. Student societies are able to give feedback on how the office can be improved.

TUITION DUE DATES

FALL 2021: August 31st, 2021
WINTER 2021: January 4th, 2022

How much do I pay for Tuition?

There are three types of tuition costs depending where you are residing:

- Quebec
- Non-Quebec Canadian
- International

UNDERSTANDING TUITION

TUITION AND FEES ARE DIFFERENT FOR EVERYONE

Not everyone will pay the same amount for their studies at McGill. Depending on your faculty, major, residency, and how many credits you take, your overall cost will change. Unlike some universities, McGill has a credit-based system in which students will pay an amount per credit they take, and the prices depend on your program.

FEE EXEMPTION

Some students will be able to benefit from fee exemptions. For more information about fee exemptions, please look at the International Fee Exemptions (mcgill.ca/legaldocuments/fee-exemption).

WHY FEES EXIST

The fees you pay help fund things like the SSMU, Athletics and Recreation, and IT. Some of the fees are student initiated and go to student organizations to help provide services for you. Some of the fees are initiated by the university and fund university programs. For more information about the student fees visit the SSMU Website (ssmu.ca/about-us/finances).

YOU CAN OPT-OUT OF SOME FEES

Through the Students Accounts menu on Minerva, you have the choice to "opt-out" of some fees. However, doing this may mean that you will not be able to use some associated services. If you opt out of SSMU Health and Dental insurance, for example, you will not be able to use them.

PAYING TUITION

There are three steps in paying tuition:

- Log into Minerva
- View your e-bill
- Pay your e-bill

McGill is registered as a bill with most Canadian banks.

HOW TO PAY

- Log into your online banking account
- Add McGill as a bill. The account number will be your McGill ID number.
- The institution is listed as McGill University (PQ), or as MCGILL UNIVERSITY
- Pay McGill Bill - use the bills section of your online banking account to pay McGill.
- Double check that the amount you are paying equals the amount you are paying on your e-Bill takes one to three business days for the payment to be received.
- If you pay by the due date then there will be no interest charged.
- If there is a hold in your account, the hold will lift once the payment is received and credited into your account.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

SCHOLARSHIPS

mcgill.ca/studentawards_undergraduatescholarships-and-awards

The McGill's Scholarships and Student Aid Office offers merit-based entrance scholarships for first year students.

There are:

- One-year Scholarships: valued at $3,000 (non-renewable)
- Major Scholarships: valued between $3,000 and $12,000 (renewable annually)

LOANS AND BURSARIES

The student aid office helps you find financial aid options.

WORK-STUDY OPTION

McGill has plenty of opportunities and services to help students with financial needs access to clerical, research, technical, library or other jobs on campus.

WHEN APPLYING FOR JOBS

1. Job postings will be posted on MyFuture (caps.myfuture.mcgill.ca). SSMU Opportunities will be posted on SSMU's facebook page, as well as at careers.smartrecruiters.com.

2. Contact the individual listed in the job posting if you are interested in applying for a position.

3. Provide your prospective employer with a copy of your Work Study Confirmation letter

Student Rights

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

McGill has a no-tolerance policy when it comes to plagiarism. In simple terms, the institution defines plagiarism as representing someone else's work as your own. The university's Academic Integrity policy is included in every course syllabus. As well, McGill requires every incoming student to finish and complete the Academic Integrity tutorial on myCourses.

What does this mean for students? It is important to cite materials properly, and give credit to others when using their ideas in your work. Not sure how to cite properly? Talk to a librarian or your course Teaching Assistant!

YOUR RIGHTS ARE IMPORTANT

Find McGill policies at: mcgill.ca/secretariat/policies-and-regulations
Find out more here: studentrights.ssmu.ca

McGill students enjoy rights under Quebec and Canadian law, as well as McGill policies. For example, students have the right to:

- Submit work in French and English, except in foreign language classes.
- Accommodations for exams on religious holidays.
- If you disclose a disability, the right to accommodations.
- Receive an explanation from your professor of why you received a particular grade
- An impartial third party review of an assessment.

POLICIES TO KNOW

All McGill students are entitled to the rights and freedoms granted and recognized by Canadian and Quebec Law. If you want to learn more about your rights, both academic and general, go to mcgill.ca/students/srr/policies-student-rights-and-responsibilities.

CHARTER OF STUDENT RIGHTS

Key rights and obligations of students and the university, including the right to free expression, the obligation to provide a safe learning environment, and the right to a quality education.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Articulates the rights of students with disabilities, including to receive accommodations during exams and in the classroom, to be considered for financial aid on a full-time basis, and a commitment to barrier-free learning and architecture.

ACCOMMODATION OF RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS

Sets out the procedures for students to request to write exams on a day other than a religious holy day.

CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Describes academic and non-academic offenses and how they may be disciplined by the university.

HAZING AND INAPPROPRIATE INITIATION PRACTICES

Joining student clubs and associations is a huge part of McGill student life, and for many a highlight of their university experience. Groups are welcome to engage in positive team-building activities with new members. Hazing is strictly prohibited - any member of the McGill community who suspects that hazing or other inappropriate initiation practices are taking place should contact the Office of the Dean of Students.

HARRASSMENT, SEXUAL HARRASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION PROHIBITED BY LAW

This policy defines harassment, sexual harassment, and discrimination here on campus, and in the wider McGill community.

For McGill resources on these and related issues, see the Equity at McGill webpage \(mcgill.ca/equity/resources/harassment-discrimination-sexual-violence\).

For SSMU resources, contact the Equity Commissioners at equity@ssmu.ca.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Sexual Violence prevention through education and other systemic and proactive efforts to promote awareness about the nature and effects of sexual violence.

McGill is committed to fostering a safe and respectful space on campus. A variety of supports for survivors of sexual assault, as well as those who are impacted by sexual violence, are available through the Office for Sexual Violence Response, Support and Education \(OSVRSE\).

For McGill resources on sexual violence, check the Sexual Violence Support webpage. For SSMU resources on sexual violence, check their webpage here \(ssmu.ca/resources/sexual-violence\).

For more policies and regulations, check the McGill Secretariat website, or the website of your faculty or school.

Academic Rights

I HAVE A QUESTION ABOUT MY STUDENT RIGHTS! WHERE CAN I GO?

OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

(514) 398 - 4990
deanofstudents@mcgill.ca
mcgill.ca/deanofstudents

The Office of the Dean of Students oversees student rights and responsibilities. It is in charge of disciplinary procedures and provides resources and information to help enhance and improve students' academic and personal success.

OFFICE FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES (OSD)

1010 Sherbrooke Street West, suite 410
mcgill.ca/osd
3459 McTavish Street, Room RS56
(514) 398 - 2480 | disabilities.students@mcgill.ca
mcgill.ca/osd

The Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) gives support services and reasonable accommodations to any students at McGill with disabilities. This includes document disabilities that are permanent, temporary, or episodic in nature. Students are invited to contact them for more information on available support. This support could include note-taking services, exam accommodations, and/or assistive technology.

OMBUDSPERSON FOR STUDENTS

3610 McTavish Street, Suite 14
(514) 398 - 7059 | ombudsperson@mcgill.ca
mcgill.ca/ombudsperson

The Office of the Ombudsperson for Students offers confidential, informal, independent, and impartial dispute resolution services to all members of the student community by providing information, advice, intervention and referrals.

SSMU STUDENT RIGHTS

studentrights@ssmu.ca
The SSMU Students' Rights Researcher and Advocacy Commissioner and VP (University Affairs) are here to answer any questions you may have about your academic or personal rights! They can also provide advice on dispute resolution, including advocating on your behalf.

LEGAL INFORMATION CLINIC MONTREAL (LICM) (licm.ca)

The LICM provides free and confidential advice and representation to McGill students facing disciplinary procedures. Contact them if you are being disciplined, or have questions about your academic and personal rights on campus.

My McGill

"As an entering university student, taking on new responsibilities that will impact and shape your future can be quite intimidating. Nevertheless, the McGill community truly offered me a 'second home', allowing me to grow as a person in a safe environment while still being able to live unforgettable and fun experiences. Overall, the main lesson I have gotten from my years here is not to be afraid to ask friends, advisors and professors for help when you need it, whether it be on which classes to take, mental health or what next steps you should take for your future career."

Melanie Baume, B.A. 2021

Course Registration

Registering for courses through Minerva can feel like a daunting task at first but no worries! This section will help you make sense of all the links, acronyms, and boxes you will see when registering for your classes.

F.A.Q.

Q: MINERVA CRASHED AND I WAS NOT ABLE TO REGISTER FOR THE CLASSES I WANTED. WHAT DO I DO?

This has happened to everyone at least once! Try first talking to an academic advisor about your options, you can check page 77. Many students will change their schedule in the first few weeks of the semester so make sure to check Minerva for open spaces to get a spot. It is also a good idea to reach out to the professor to see if they can get you into your desired class. Many students spend a dollar to register on getaseat.ca which will alert you via email or text about when a spot opens in the class.

Q: WHAT IS "ADD/DROP" ?

The add/drop period runs from the first day of class September 14 (and until January 18 in the Winter semester). During this time, you can change your schedule as much as you like without worrying about penalties. The Add/Drop will give you the opportunity to explore different subjects and times to figure out your schedule and what works best for you. Instructors are not allowed to assign any graded work during this time and are not allowed to penalize students for missing grades or assignments during the add/drop. (you can check page 67 for more information on your academic rights).

Q: WHAT DOES IT MEAN WHEN IT SAYS A CLASS HAS A "WAITLIST"? HOW DO I GET ON ONE?

Not all courses will have a waitlist. If a course page on Minerva says "WVL Rem" (Waitlist Remaining) column, and the "Rem" is greater than 0, then there is space on the waitlist. Students who are on the top of the waitlist will be sent an email allowing them to register for the course within the next 24 hours. If the student does not register in the allotted time, they will lose their place on the waitlist. During this period, spaces that are open are reserved for the next student on the waitlist. Even if they seem to be available, no one else is allowed to register. If you are sent an invitation to register, you should accept or reject it as soon as possible to be considerate of the other students on the waitlist. You can check your status on the waitlist by going to "View Student Schedule by Course Section" within Minerva's Registration Menu.

Q: WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN U0 AND U1?

If you come to McGill as a student with advanced standing (you have at least 24 existing course credits equal to McGill course credits), you will be in U1. This will generally apply to students who already have enough AP or IB credits, went to CEGEP, or have transferred from another university. You can find out about your status online on Minerva by searching for "Registration Eligibility." If you are in U1, it will say if you are a "UG Level Year 1 New." If you have no credits prior to arriving at McGill, this means you are a U0. As a U0, you will have to complete your faculty's Freshman year program of 30 introductory level credits. (For more information go to page 70 and check your faculty website or set up a meeting with an academic advisor.)

SSMU MINICOURSES

The SSMU Mini Courses are fun, inexpensive, and non-credit courses offered to students and the Montreal community. It encourages students to develop knowledge and skills that are helpful inside and outside the classroom. You find more information here: \(ssmu.ca/student-life/minicourses/\)

Textbooks

Textbooks and course-packs are vital to your success in class. However, both can get expensive and as a university student, you may be on a budget. Below are some ways to save money on textbooks. Be aware that some textbooks have single use online access codes preventing you from using a second-hand book for class. As of January 2021, the McGill Library will be a great way to get access to course-related material including digital course packs. Coursepacks will be free at no additional cost to the student.

The most common places for students to buy textbooks are:

LE JAMES MCGILL BOOKSTORE
680 Sherbrooke Street West lejames.ca

The services provided by LE JAMES were completely online last year due to COVID-19 with the option of delivery to the address of your choice or pickup. With COVID restrictions being lifted - we are hopeful that the bookstore will be open to the public this fall semester, while continuing to follow Government and University directives. Follow the bookstore on Social Media and sign up to their newsletter to keep up to date.

To order course materials online: lejames.ca/textbook
To sign up to the newsletter: lejames.ca/newsletter-signup

PARAGRAPHE BOOKSTORE
2220 McGill College Avenue
Paragraphbooks.com

Paragraphe bookstore is a great location to get many of the course materials you will need for the semester. They have shelves labeled with different course numbers and the books the professor wants you to get for the class. They offer textbooks, books, and course packs.

WORD(THE)
469 Milton Street
Wordbookstore.ca

Word is a small independent book store that offers secondhand books focused on literature, philosophy, political science, and poetry. Most of the books offered are affordable so make sure to check out this spot not too far from campus. They also offer textbooks.

TIPS TO SAVE MONEY:

RENT/BUY YOUR TEXTBOOKS FROM AMAZON.

They will often be cheaper than Le James. Students who have a valid .edu email address can join Amazon Prime Student, which has additional deals.

BUY AN EARLIER EDITION.

Once a newer version of a textbook is released, the older ones get a lot cheaper. Make sure to ask your professor if it is okay, since older editions may no longer have up-to-date information!

BUY YOUR TEXTBOOKS SECONDHAND.

Le James will occasionally have used copies and have copies in limited supply, so check McGill Facebook groups and used bookstores (like The Word on Milton). Check online for a free version if it is an older text.

LOOK FOR AN OPEN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCE (OER) ON THE TOPIC YOUR COURSE COVERS.

OERs are free, online, and frequently peer-reviewed academic resources. Check out openstax.org, bccampus.ca, the McGill library, or the SSMU OER webpage to check if there is an OER for your course!

ASK YOUR PROFESSOR FOR HELP

It is a good idea to ask your professors to scan relevant readings or textbook passages and upload them to MyCourses. This might not always be possible, but some professors are more than willing to make all relevant information available online.

Libraries

Montreal has many different types of places to go study, including cafes and parks, but nothing compares like McGill's libraries. They are probably the most important hotspot for students to gather and study. There are seven libraries in the downtown campus, so take the time to find your perfect study space in the first few weeks of the semester. The hours for each library vary, so check out mcgill.ca/library/ to make sure your spot will be open when you want to study!

MCLENNAN-REDPATH LIBRARY COMPLEX

3459 Rue McTavish

Best For: A great location to study as a group, with lots of different environments featuring varied seating arrangements and noise levels. Head down to the basement cafeteria for snacks and a study break. Be aware of the overpriced coffee in the basement cafeteria.

BLACKADER-LAUTERMAN LIBRARY

Redpath Library, floor 3

3459 Rue McTavish

Best For: A semi-secret study space located up a back stairwell in McLennan, Blackader is the home of McGill's Architecture and Art collection. It also has a great view of campus.

SCHULICH LIBRARY OF SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

809 Rue Sherbrooke Ouest

Best For: Schulich Library is popular due to its 24/7 accessibility. Unfortunately, this study space will be closed for renovations until 2022.

MARVIN DUCHOW MUSIC LIBRARY

Elizabeth Wirth Music Building, 3-5, entrance on 3rd floor

527 Rue Sherbrooke Ouest

Best For: This ultra-modern, sun-filled library is renowned for its easy access to the RVC Cafeteria, Vinh's Too Vietnamese Restaurant, and Starbucks. Although it has a three floor range, space is limited and those in the faculty of Music are given priority.

NAHUM GELBER LAW LIBRARY

3660 Rue Peel, floors 2-5

Best For: The Law Library is for those students who really need to get their homework done. The library takes their no-speaking and no-eating policy very seriously, so make sure to leave your friends and snacks at the door.

BIRKS READING ROOM

William and Henry Birks Building, floor 2

3520 Rue University

Best For: The Birks Reading Room has a classic atmosphere that is different from other libraries on campus. It is located in the upper level of the Birks building on Sherbrooke. This location is a blast in the past as it is a cozy reading room with many shelves full of antiquated books.

ISLAMIC STUDIES LIBRARY

3485 rue McTavish

Best For: The Islamic Studies Library is at the centre of campus and is a great location for readings between classes. Also, it is a beautiful place to get work done as it is the most aesthetically-pleasing study spot.

GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION CENTRE

Burnside Hall, floor 5

805 rue Sherbrooke Ouest

Best For: A little-known study room, the GIC has open workspaces for group study, private review, or any other kind of academic prep you need to know.

Studying

McGill asks a lot of its students academically. Although your first semester might be challenging, there are plenty of ways to make sure you stay on track. It is important to remember to not push yourself to the limit. Part of being in university is learning from your mistakes and there is plenty to learn throughout your career at McGill.

UTILIZE A DAY PLANNER

Use the calendar in the back of this book to help you keep track of your time, tasks, and events so you do not miss anything.

GO TO A STUDYING SKILLS WORKSHOP

The office for students with Disabilities, Student Wellness Hub, and Campus Life & Engagement all offer these kinds of workshops throughout the year.

Grading

Your Grade Point Average (GPA) for each term, as well as your GPA for your whole entree, is listed on your unofficial transcript in Minerva (go to Student > Student Records Menu > View Unofficial Transcript).

Below is the basic grading scale for McGill. Grades that are required to pass a class differ between faculties, so always check in with your faculty first.

TERMS TO KNOW

CUMULATIVE GRADE POINT AVERAGE (CGPA)

This is your GPA for your entire degree at McGill.

PASS/FAIL OR SATISFACTORY/UNSATISFACTORY OPTION (S/U)

Opting to take a course Pass/Fail means a course will not count toward your GPA — you either pass or fail the course. There are strict rules for taking a pass/fail course (e.g. you can only do it for electives), so it is wise to see an advisor before choosing to take one.

GRADES	GRADES POINTS	NUMERICAL SCALE
A	4.0	85-100
A-	3.7	80-84
B+	3.3	75-79
B	3.0	70-74
B-	2.7	65-69
C+	2.3	60-64
C	2.0	55-59
D	1.0	50-54
F(Fail)	0	0-49

STUDY TIPS

TAKE A BREAK FROM THE LIBRARY

Make sure to take a break from the library and go to an unconventional location to go study. Flip to page 37 for a list of cheap eateries to check out.

DO NOT CRAM

Everybody does it at least once, but make sure to spread out your studying over time so that you can retain information better and see the big picture.

TRY TO SLEEP, EAT WELL, AND STAY ACTIVE

Taking care of yourself while you study can be hard, but it is vital for more focused studying and for your physical and mental health.

TALK TO YOUR PROFESSOR AND YOUR TA DURING OFFICE HOURS

It is their job to make sure you understand the content, so it can only be beneficial to approach them to get their help. It is great to establish a relationship with your professors in the long run as well.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

When you have a GPA that is below 2.0, you are placed on academic probation. You will be reinstated once you raise it to 2.5. If you fall below a 1.5, you will need to be placed in Unsatisfactory Standing and must request readmission to your program. Contact your advisor if you are in this situation.

K

On a transcript, this means "incomplete" because your deadline to submit work in a course was extended. If you are struggling, especially due to medical issues, and think you need some extra time, contact your advisor or a Student Advocacy group.

L

On a transcript, this means that you deferred a final exam. An "L" will stay on your transcript until you take the deferred exam and receive the grade for that course.

W

On a transcript, this means that you withdrew from a course with the permission of your instructor and the University.

SATISFACTORY PASS

Needed for courses that fulfill program requirements

CONDITIONAL PASS

FAILURE

Exams

Exams can be tough, especially when it's your first time writing them at university. These FAQs should help you understand what the process is like, so you can focus on hitting the books. For advice on study tips and study spaces, you can flip to page 73 and 84-85. If you're feeling overwhelmed, flip to page 50 for information on the services available to you.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Q: WHEN ARE MY EXAMS?

The tentative dates for the exam schedule is usually published around the fifth week of the semester. The final one will not come out until two weeks later. Make sure to wait for your final exam schedule to come out before you make any travel plans. McGill does not take travel as an excuse for missing an exam.

Q: WHAT DO I NEED TO BRING TO AN EXAM?

Most important thing to bring (besides yourself) is your student ID! You will need a valid card in order to write your exam. When you are writing the exam, you are not allowed to have any of your belongings with you, so make sure to leave all your valuables at home. Do not forget to eat well and bring water for your exams.

78 Q: WHAT IS AN "EXAM ACCOMMODATION"?

Students who are registered with the Office for Students with Disabilities can request alternative exam accommodations. There is a seven day deadline to sign up for accommodations, so be sure to inform the OSD in advance. It is also important to let the OSD know if you would rather write your finals with the rest of your class.

Q: WHAT HAPPENS IF I DO NOT PASS MY EXAM?

If you receive a D, F, J or U on a final exam and are in satisfactory or probationary standing, you may be able to write a supplemental exam. Keep in mind that your original and supplemental grades will appear on your transcript and in your CGPA. Your supplemental exam will count for a large percentage of your final exam. Writing a supplemental exam costs $35, and you can apply on Minerva. Some faculties will not allow supplemental exams (Agriculture, Environment Sciences, Management, Music, Engineering, etc).

Q: WHAT HAPPENS IF SOMETHING GOES TERRIBLY WRONG AND I CAN'T WRITE MY EXAM?

If you are not able to write an exam due to illness, family passing, or another serious reason, you can apply to defer your exam. To do so, first head to Minerva and fill out the deferral form (Student Menu > Student Records Menu > Deferred Exam Application). Then you must present documentation, like a doctor's note, to your faculty's office as soon as possible. Deferred exams are generally scheduled about a semester later. McGill has a very informative write-up on exam deferrals here: mcgill.ca/exams.dated/supdefer#deferred.

Q: WHAT IS AN "EXAM CONFLICT" AND HOW DO I HANDLE ONE?

You have an exam conflict if you have:

- Two exams at the same time
- Three exams in one day
- Three consecutive exams in twenty-four hours
- Four exams in two days
- Five exams in three days

Usually, McGill will let you know if you have an exam conflict. However, if you are not alerted, you must fill out a Final Exam Conflict Form and submit it to Service Point. You can find the form at mcgill.ca/exams/final-exam-conflict-form.

Remember, travel arrangements do not qualify as a conflict, so make sure to make plans after the final schedule is released! You can also request religious accommodation for an exam. The deadline for requesting accommodation is four weeks before the exam period begins. Make sure to fill out the Conflict form that was mentioned above.

Tutoring

The first year at McGill means adjusting to new study strategies, tactics, and schedules. Classes at McGill are known to be hard so it is normal to seek out extra assistance. Try contacting one of the resources listed below for advice on new habits and for help on difficult subjects. You should also reach out to your departmental association for free tutoring, but do it sooner than later. Working with a tutor can help you prep without having to cram and will also alleviate stress.

MCGILL TUTORIAL SERVICE mcgill.ca/tutoring/ Tutoring.service@mcgill.ca

McGill's Tutorial Service offers academic assistance from qualified and vetted students. It costs eighteen dollars an hour, but first-year students get the first hour free! If you are an Indigenous student, a Varsity athlete, a Mastercard Scholar, registered with the OSD, or on academic probation, the cost of a tutor is subsidized and even free. Students that are enrolled at McGill are eligible to request a tutor, register for a webinar, or benefit from their self-directed learning materials. To request a tutor, fill the form at: mcgill.ca/tutoring/tutor-request-form.

MCGILL WRITING CENTRE mcgill.ca/mwc/ mwctutorial@mcgill.ca

The McGill Writing Centre offers up to seven hours of support per semester and will help you with any stage of the writing process. Note that they do not just proofread your essays but actively help you to build the writing skills needed for the future. The Centre books fast during the paper-writing season so make sure to get a space early and register for an appointment using your McGill email.

ENGINEERING PEER TUTORING mcgill.ca/engineering/students/undergraduate/mesc/engineering-peer-tutoring-service Epts@mcgillus.ca

Sponsored by the Engineering Undergraduate Society (EUS) and McGill Engineering Student Service (MESC), EPTS is a free tutoring service for undergraduate Engineering students. This service has upper-level undergraduate tutors from all departments available for weekly drop-ins to help U0/U1 students with many of their courses. EPTS tutors also offer free midterm and final review sessions for U0, U1, and upper year (300+) level courses.

The Science Undergraduate Society (SUS)'s Peer Tutoring Service peertutors.sus.mcgill.ca/ Suspeertutors@gmail.com

The SUS's service provides 100% free one-on-one tutoring, group tutorials, help desks, and review sessions from qualified student volunteers.

ARTS UNDERGRADUATE SOCIETY (AUS) ESSAY CENTRE ausmcgill.com/services/aus-essay-centre/ Aus.essay.centre@gmail.com

If you are struggling with an essay and need help with grammar, citations, structure or simply want someone to proofread your work, the Essay Centre tutors can provide free peer editing services when you bring a physical copy of your essay. They are very helpful when it comes to figuring out citation rules and will provide editing assistance in either French or English. Visit their website to meet the tutors and to figure out which is your best option to get help.

Mentoring

McGill has an abundant number of mentorship programs meant for undergraduate students. Mentorship programs are a great way to get advice from someone who has been there before. Check in with your advisors about faculty- or department-specific mentorships, or look into these specialized programs explained below.

INDIGENOUS STUDENT MENTORSHIP

Peer-to-peer mentoring for Indigenous students.

WHO?

Mentoring by volunteer graduate and upper-year undergraduate students.

HOW?

Helps connect with the McGill community, navigate your first year, and familiarize yourself with university life.

WHERE?

First Peoples House at fph.mentorship@mcgill.ca

OFFICE FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES MENTOR PROGRAM

Peer-to-peer support for diverse learning.

WHO?

Mentoring by graduate and upper-years earlier

WHAT?

Students who are registered with the OSD can receive mentoring to ease the transition to university and develop their networks and skill sets.

WHERE:

OSD at www.mcgill.ca/osd/student-resources/peer-peer-supports/mentoring.

MCGILL MENTOR PROGRAM

Provides career guidance to any McGill undergraduate.

WHO?

Mentoring by McGill alumni.

WHAT?

Two-month mentorship for students, including helpful career path advice from successful alumni. Beware — this is not meant as a job placement.

WHERE?

Career Planning Services (CaPS) at mentor.caps@mcgill.ca or mcgill.ca/caps/students/services/mentor

THE INTERNATIONAL BUDDY PROGRAM

Peer-to-peer support for new international students.

WHO?

Mentoring by returning McGill students.

WHAT?

Helps facilitate making friends in Montreal while giving language support, cultural guidance, and info about McGill.

WHERE?

HOMEWORK ZONE

mcgill.ca/branches-program/school-outreach/hz

Are you interested in becoming a mentor?

Homework Zone (HZ) is a McGill after-school mentoring program that connects you with elementary and secondary school students in schools around Montreal, and in Kahnawake.

Academic Advising

mcgill.ca/students/advising/advisordirectory

Advisors help you navigate the complex administrative bureaucracy that is McGill and help plan your degree! They are here to help integrate into campus life, plan your class schedule, give you access to special classes, and keep you updated on opportunities related to your degree. There is usually a rush to see advisors at the start of each semester, so plan accordingly and prepare for lines that stretch into the hallway. There are also Peer Advisors, who are trained to help you with academic and non-academic concerns. Make sure to check out the Advisor Directory to find the advisor who can best help you!

A good tip is to visit an advisor at least once a year to ensure you are on the right track. Many students are confused or make mistakes about their course requirements and checking in can help you avoid graduating later than planned.

WHO DOES THE ADVISING

Faculty Advisors

WHERE?

Find them in the Student Affairs of each faculty.

WHAT?

Advise you on general issues related to your faculty. Offer guidance on choosing majors and minors and planning credit loads. Assist you in transferring faculties and understanding program rules. Help manage your academics during times of difficulty.

DEPARTMENTAL ADVISORS

WHERE?

Go to your department website to see which professor is the advisor for your program (Major, Minor, Honours, Joint Honours, etc) and their office hours. It is recommended that you send an email about your goals first so that they can prepare once you meet.

WHAT?

Advise you on the issues related to your specific program. Assist with course approvals, ensure you are reaching departmental graduation requirements, and evaluate course equivalency requests. Provide information on specific courses, internships, and scholarships. Offer support and referrals during academic or personal difficulty.

PROFESSORS

WHO?

Although not official advisors, they can help with your specific field of interest.

WHAT?

Advise you about the latest research trends and recommend readings. Share and brainstorm potential essay ideas or research topics. Discuss potential research opportunities. Write recommendation letters.

My McGill

"The biggest hurdles I faced while I was an undergraduate at McGill were related to my lack of experience with University bureaucracy and how it works. Although, by using the different services offered by McGill (CaPS, Service Point and others) I was able to acquire knowledge on how University works."

"I see myself as part of a big McGill family. I know I can always rely on another McGill student like they are my brother or sister. McGill has become a second family in which I strive to succeed. I'm always proud of where I am studying, because I am proud of my McGill family and who we are."

Health Insurance

Studentcare.ca

HOW STUDENT HEALTHCARE WORKS

The SSMU Health and Dental Plan helps students pay for services that are not covered by provincial health care. All SSMU members (undergraduate students on the downtown campus including Law, Medicine, and Dentistry students) registered in the fall semester and paying Canadian or Quebec tuition rates are automatically registered for Studentcare and covered from September 1 until August 31 of the next year. International students are automatically covered by the SSMU Dental Plan. International student health insurance is administered by the University via the Blue Cross International Student Health plan.

Students starting in the Winter semester are not automatically enrolled in the plan by the university. They have the possibility to enroll during the January Change-of-Coverage Period by contacting StudentCare at 514-789-8775.

WHAT TO KNOW

- The fees associated with the Health & Dental plan are billed directly to your August McGill e-bill available on Minerva.
- StudentCare pairs with health care providers in Montreal to offer you discounts. Check out these networks on studentcare.ca to find out more.
- You have more than $10,000 in health care coverage and up to $5 million in travel coverage. The complete list of benefits is available here.
- You can combine the plan with a parent or spouse's employment benefit plan to maximize coverage, or opt-out of StudentCare altogether, if you choose to use private insurance. Remember, most parental plans stop covering you after the age of 25.
- You can also enroll your spouse, common-law partner, and dependents for an extra fee.
- The SSMU office staff cannot answer specific or personal questions about the plan; you must contact StudentCare directly. Moreover, to respect privacy and confidentiality, only students may make changes to their coverage.

THE CLAIMING PROCESS

For students that have never made an insurance claim before, the process can be tricky to navigate. First, go to studentcare.ca (studentcare.ca) and identify the SSMU as your student association. You will be redirected to a page specifically for McGill undergraduate students. Second, find the claims forms on the right-hand side in a blue box. Finally, complete the correct form(s) using this guide (studentcare.ca/rte/en/McGillUniversityundergraduatestudentsSSMU_Claims_HowtoClaim) with information on the deadlines and addresses where to send the forms.

You will need to provide your group numbers on the forms. As a McGill student, they are as follows:

Health, Dental, and Vision (insured by Desjardins): Q1103

Travel (insured by Blue Cross): 97180

Certificate Number : Your 9-digit McGill student ID number.

Family Life on Campus

There are lots of on- and off- campus networks and structures helping students who balance family life with going to school. Here are some resources available to you that will help you navigate your school life, as well as connect with your loved ones and other families!

ON CAMPUS RESOURCES

MCGILL FAMILY CARE | mcgill.ca/familycare familycare.coordinator@mcgill.ca
 3610 McTavish, room 11-3
 514-398-5645

The McGill Family Care website provides student caregivers – whether as a student parent, or a student caring for a family member – with information on accessing clubs, services, childcare, and policy information. They also help to organize events and provide an online community to connect student caregivers at McGill.

THE SSMU DAYCARE / NURSERY |
daycare.ssmu.ca | daycare@ssmu.ca
 3600 Rue McTavish, Suite 2300
 514-398-8590

Located in McGill's Downtown campus, the SSMU Daycare / Nursery is an English-based centre set up to receive up to 40 infants aged less than 18 months and children aged up to five years (8 infants and 32 children). The educators are dedicated to providing children with a safe and emotionally-secure environment during their formative years. The spaces are subsidized and priority is given to full-time McGill undergraduate and postgraduate students. Visit their website for more information and go to laplace0-5.com to register your child on the waiting list.

OFF CAMPUS RESOURCES

QUEEN ELIZABETH HEALTH COMPLEX |
qehc.org
 2100 Avenue de Marlowe, suite 102
 (514) 485-5013

The Queen Elizabeth Health Complex is a not-for-profit community-led organization which works in partnership with others to promote and preserve the health and well-being of all members of the community. They provide a variety of services including ultrasounds, mammogram tests, and lactation consultations. you can visit their urgent care clinic twelve hours a day (from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.), 365 days a year. However, during the Covid-19 crisis, an appointment must be made online using the Quebec Medical Appointment Scheduler. (rvsq.gouv.qc.ca/fr/accueil)

QUEBEC DAYCARE SUBSIDIES |

 In Quebec, many daycares have spaces subsidized on a sliding scale, from $7.30 to $20 per day. The link above will help you understand and navigate the childcare process.

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING |
mcgill.ca/students/housing/offcampus
 Unfortunately, there currently isn't any on-campus, family-style housing options at McGill. However, you can get in touch for help with finding housing off-campus. Check out page 58-59 to find out more info about your options. The VP (External Affairs) is also working on intergenerational housing; you can email them directly at external@ssmu.ca for more information.

While there currently does not exist any on or off-campus, family-style housing options at McGill, there are plenty of services to support you, and help you find the right environment for you and your loved ones.

Moreover, as part of the Affordable Housing Plan (see page 55 of the handbook to find out more about the plan), the office of the Vice-President (External Affairs) is working to establish the feasibility and to incorporate intergenerational housing in the to-be built student housing structures.

Spirituality and Religion

The McGill Office for Religious and Spiritual Life (MORSL)

mcgill.ca/morsl | FB @morsl

MORSL is your religious and spiritual place on campus, welcoming all students, of any faith or religious denomination – and also those without any religious affiliation. As it is one of the few intentionally religion-positive spaces on campus, students can experience and model peaceful and celebratory religious pluralism via various resources and activities, including workshops, events, publications, a lounge and a meditation space. Visit their website for more information.

Their community is open to people of all faith backgrounds and those who are interested in exploring faith for the first time.

Eating Disorders

mcgill.ca/wellness-hub/self-help/healthy-eating

WARNING: This page discusses eating disorders. Some of the content is sensitive and meant to help students Eating disorders (also known as EDs) can be hard to understand and to navigate. There are many factors that can lead to EDs, such as biological, psychological, and social factors. They often exist with other factors like depression, substance abuse, and/or anxiety disorders. Eating disorders have the highest mortality rate of all psychiatric disorders, therefore, it is important to get help quickly if you or someone close to you is experiencing this.

FIVE TIPS FOR ACCESSING MENTAL HEALTH SUPPORT

1. Looking for support outside Quebec, outside office hours, or in your first language?

Use keep.meSAFE \(myssp.app/keepmesafe/ca/home\) by downloading the MySSP mobile app. More information on accessing trained counsellors through this FREE service can be found here \(ssmu.ca/blog/2020/03/mental-health-resource-available-keep-mesafe\), as well as through our student ambassadors on Instagram \(@mcgill_campus_ambassadors\)

2. Need to see an off-campus mental health professional?

Save money through your student insurance plan. Students enrolled in the SSMU Health & Dental Plan \(studentcare.ca/rte/en/McGillUniversityundergraduatestudentsSSMU_Home\) have 80% coverage for sessions with a mental health professional, up to $1000/year, as well as reduced-cost services through the StudentCare Psychology Network (studentcare.ca/rte/en/McGillUniversityundergraduatestudentsSSMU_HealthCareNetworks_PsychologyNetwork). For international students, the Blue Cross Plan (mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/health) covers up to $750/year in psychologist or psychotherapist fees.

3. Prefer booking appointments online?

Reach out to an Access Advisor \(outlook.office365.com/owa/calendar/StudentWellnessHubAccessAdvisors@McGill.onmicrosoft.com/bookings\) or Local Wellness Advisor \(mcgill.ca/wellness-hub/get-support/local-wellness-advisors\). All of them are qualified professionals, and provide a great resource for navigating your mental health – whether through self care or further support. Local Wellness Advisors serve specific groups of students, which means they can be great at understanding certain shared experiences.

4. Want insider info on the Student Wellness Hub?

Follow @healthiermcgill on Instagram. In addition to tips on accessing care, you'll find wellness strategies, event announcements, and behind-the-scenes insight into the "who", "what", "where", "when", "why" and "how" of the Hub.

5. Just need a listening ear? Easily access support through the Peer Support Centre \(psc.ssmu.ca\), Nightline \(nightline.ssmu.ca\), and the Eating Disorder Resource and Support Centre \(edrsc.ssmu.ca\). These student-run services provide support with minimal barriers and timely access. Check here \(ssmu.ca/resources/mental-health/mental-health-resources\) for more on- and off-campus resources that provide support, especially those catering to specific identities/groups.

If you need help navigating all these resources or do not understand how to access mental health support you can always reach out to mentalhealth@ssmu.ca for guidance.

Alcohol & Drugs

WARNING: This page discusses drugs and alcohol use. Some of the content is sensitive and meant to help students

ALCOHOL

Despite what it may feel like, drinking is not a necessary part of university life. No pressure! If you choose to drink, know your limits and stay safe!

Here are some tips on safe drinking:

- Stick to one drink per hour! Some mobile apps - such as AlcoDroid Alcohol Tracker- even exist to help you keep count!
- Stay hydrated! Drink water before and after drinking.
- Eat some food! Do not drink on an empty stomach.
- Be aware of laws related to alcohol consumption! Open containers are illegal in Montreal unless you are also eating a meal, and the drinking age in Quebec is 18.
- Be prepared! Have a plan for the night - where you will party and how to get home for instance - and make a plan with your friends about what to do if something goes wrong.
- Utilize Drivesafe and Walksafe to get to your destination safely.

REMEMBER

If a person is unconscious, breathing slowly, and has bluish-tinged or pale skin, they may have alcohol poisoning. Seek medical help immediately!

- First, call 911.
- If you are on campus, second call Security

Services who will coordinate with emergency responders.

- Downtown: (514)-398-3000
- Mac Campus: (514)398-7777.

DRUGS

Although SSMU does not encourage or condone illegal drug use, we do endorse harm reduction and promote information over stigmatization. If you are interested in experimenting with different substances, please follow the tips below to help ensure your safety.

GUIDELINES FOR SAFER DRUG USE

- Utilize Drivesafe and Walksafe to get to your destination safely.
- Only try a little bit of the drug you decided to use! Many people overdose because they expect what they've bought to be similar to the last time, but this isn't always the case.
- Know your facts before experimenting! Dance Safe (dancesafe.org) provides detailed info about different drug use in a non-judgemental way.
- Beware of overdoses and laced substances!
- If you believe you are experiencing an opioid overdose, or know someone experiencing one, check the sites (inspq.qc.ca/sites/default/files/cartes/naloxone/index.html) in the Montreal area that offer Naloxone. Naloxone is meant to help. Make sure you trust the source you bought from. Additionally, you can purchase a naloxone kit at most pharmacies. Naloxone is a medication meant to block the effects of opioids.
- Mix = risk ! A cocktail of substances can be dangerous and have unexpected effects. Moreover, be careful when mixing substances with medicine and alcohol.
- Find yourself a safety buddy! It is important to have someone clear-headed that can react quickly if something happens. Consider a safe use site. Information on CACTUS Montreal can be found below.

CACTUS MONTREAL,
1300 rue Sanguinet: Walk-in clinic
1244 rue Berger: Safe injection site
Cactusmontreal.org
info@cactusmontreal.org
(514) 847-0067 | Nurse at ext. 100, call from 2 p.m. onward to check availability.
Safe injection sites like CACTUS Montreal offer safe supervision and sanitary equipment for drug injection or inhalation. They also hold a meeting place for drug users to build safer drug using practices and promote the health and well-being of the community

Safer Sex : Consent

WARNING: This page discusses sex and consent. Some of the content is sensitive and meant to help students mcgill.ca/wellness-hub/selfhelp/healthy-sexuality instagram.com/givingthetalk/

Consent is essential if you're engaged in sexual activities! It is integral to a healthy and safe sex life, not just for you, but for your partner(s) too.

WHAT IS CONSENT?

Consent is an enthusiastic and freely given "YES!" that must be given for all kinds of sexual activity that you engage in.

ACTIVE. Consent cannot be implied from silence or the absence of a "no". It also can't be assumed in the context of a current or previous dating, sexual, or marital relationship. It must be given by clear and unequivocal words and/or actions.

REVOCABLE. It must be continuous and can be withdrawn at any point, even if someone has said "yes" before. You can change your mind at any time, for any reason and the activity must stop.

INFORMED. Each participant must know exactly what they are giving their consent to.
REPEATED. To consent to one form of sexual activity does not mean consenting to other forms of sexual activity. Check-in with your partner(s) every step of the way to ensure an enjoyable experience.

FREELY GIVEN. Consent cannot be obtained if there is any kind of threat or coercion present, including force (physical, emotional, verbal, etc.), intimidation, manipulation, blackmail, or pressure.

ALTERED BY POWER DYNAMICS. Consent cannot be obtained if someone is in a position of power and authority, such as between a professor and a student or a supervisor and an employee. using consent It can feel embarrassing to learn about consent or start using it during sex.

AFFECTED BY INTOXICATION. The use of alcohol and/or drugs never implies consent, and should not be assumed to have played a role in causing a survivor's experience of sexual violence. Furthermore, alcohol and/or drug use by the perpetrator, never justifies their actions. Consent does not kill the "mood" and can even help build intimacy! The best way to know if consent is present is to ... ASK! After asking, it is imperative that you LISTEN to their decision and RESPECT their choice!

Here are some example of sentences you can use to ask for consent:

- Do you want to [cuddle/have sex/keep going]?
- Can I touch you here?
- Are you okay / is this okay ?
- Should we continue / stop / slow down?

Here are some examples of sentence you can use to give consent:

- YES!
- Let's do it!
- That's exactly what I wanted! / I was thinking the same thing!
- I'd love that, what about we start with

Here are some examples of how to revoke consent :

- I changed my mind. This isn't doing it for me.
- No! Stop!
- I think I'd rather [cuddle/have a snack / leave].
- Let's pause this, I need a minute.

Here is how to receive a "No"?

- That's totally okay. Thanks for letting me know.
- Cool. What do you want to do instead?
- Okay! Do you want to watch a movie?
- I'm glad you said something. Would you prefer to [cuddle/ be alone/ get a snack] ?

Using consent in daily activities will help it feel less awkward in bed, and the people around you will appreciate your consideration. There are workshops available to learn more about what consent looks like and how you can use it regularly. Here are some questions to get started:

- Are you listening when people tell you no?
- Are you checking in with others before engaging in platonic physical contact?
- Do you respect someone's choice to not be hugged or touched?

Safer Sex : Protecting Yourself

WARNING: This page discusses sex and consent. Some of the content is sensitive and meant to help students

Part of safer - and enjoyable - sex is about knowing the risks of any kind of sexual activity and making sure you're taking care of yourself and your partner(s). This means being aware of the risks of sexually transmitted infections (STIs) and unwanted pregnancy.

BIRTH CONTROL

There are many different kinds of contraception. To find out which one is right for you, research some of the methods below and speak with a doctor.

HORMONAL CONTRACEPTION.

i.e., pill, patch, ring, require a prescription from a doctor, and can be bought at a pharmacy. Remember that if you are on HRT (Hormone Replacement Therapy), it does not prevent pregnancy and you still need a birth control plan.

BARRIER PROTECTION. You can buy barrier methods (internal and external condoms, sponges) at the Shag Shop (mcgill.ca/healthymcgill/shagshop) or any pharmacy. Condoms are also free at Healthy McGill kiosks around campus!

EMERGENCY CONTRACEPTION. A pill taken to prevent pregnancy after unprotected sex, or if other methods of contraception failed. A prescription may be required to receive the EC pill. Also, the pill is only effective up to five days after sex, the sooner you take it the better.

PREGNANCY

If you think you may be pregnant, you make an appointment at the Wellness Hub, or buy a test at the pharmacy, or the Shag Shop, (mcgill.ca/healthymcgill/shagshop) or the UGE and Queer McGill (queermcgill.org/ressources).

If you discover you are pregnant, here's some information about your options:

- Abortion is legal in Canada and available up until twenty-two (22) weeks of pregnancy. It's usually a minor procedure and complications are unlikely to arise.
- Quebec health insurance covers abortion for free, but students with other kinds of insurance must pay upfront before being reimbursed by their health plan. If you want to place a child up for adoption, you will have to go through the Office of Social Services in Quebec. Read about it at canadaadopts.com.
- If you choose to keep your child, there are resources at McGill and off-campus. For example, Head & Hands also hosts a "Young Parent Program" for parents or parents-to-be under 25 years old.

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED INFECTIONS (STIS)

STIs can affect anyone who is sexually active. If you're planning to engage in a sexual activity, consider and discuss STI prevention methods with your partner(s) beforehand. According to the World Health Organization (https://www.who.int/news-room/fact-sheets/detail/sexually-transmitted-infections-\(stis\))), STIs "spread predominantly by sexual contact, including vaginal, anal and oral sex. Some STIs can also be spread through non-sexual means such as via blood or blood products. Many STIs can also be transmitted from mother to child during pregnancy and childbirth."

You can prevent STI transmission by getting tested. At least one test a year is recommended, but often testing is encouraged if you have multiple partners. The Wellness Hub and other resources below perform STI testing. See page 80 for more information on your insurance coverage.

Sexual and Gender-based Violence

WARNING: This page discusses sexual and gender-based violence. Some of the content is sensitive and meant to help students

TERMS TO KNOW

SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Any non-consensual, unwanted actual, attempted, or threatened act or behaviour, that is carried out through sexual means or by targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity, or gender expression.

SEXUAL ASSAULT

Any form of sexual touching or the threat of sexual touching without the individual's consent

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Any unwanted conduct of a sexual nature or attention that affects the working, learning, or living environment or leads to adverse consequences. It can include verbal abuse, manipulation, and coercion.

STALKING

Engaging in conduct that causes an individual to fear for their physical or psychological safety, such as repeatedly following or communicating with someone (through any means), engaging in threatening conduct, or keeping watch over any place where the individual happens to be.

INDECENT EXPOSURE

Exposing one's body to another individual for a sexual purpose or coercing another individual to remove their clothing in order to expose their body without their consent.

VOYEURISM

Non-consensual viewing, photographing, or otherwise recording of another individual in a location where there is an exception of privacy and where the viewing, photographing, or recording is done for a sexual purpose.

NONCONSENSUAL DISTRIBUTION OR RECORDING OF A SEXUALLY EXPLICIT PHOTOGRAPH OR RECORDING

The distribution of a sexually explicit photograph or recording of an individual to one or more individuals other than the individual in the photograph, or recording the individual without their consent in a photograph or recording.

STEALTHING

Stealthling is defined as nonconsensual condom removal during sexual intercourse. Stealthling "exposes victims [survivors] to physical risk such as pregnancy and disease" and has been characterized by survivors as "disempowering, demeaning violation of a sexual agreement."

Sexual and Gender-based Violence

WARNING: This page discusses sexual and gender-based violence. Some of the content is sensitive and meant to help students

GENDERED VIOLENCE

Any act of physical, verbal, or emotional aggression which implicates, targets, or de-legitimizes an individual's gender presentation or identity, or an act reinforcing gender inequalities resulting in physical, sexual, emotional, or economic harm. This includes misogynistic, queerphobic, and transphobic violence.

Gendered and/or Sexual Violence impact people in different ways. Some of the effects include but are not limited too:

- Mental Health impacts (e.g., depression, anxiety, post-traumatic stress disorder, suicidal thoughts)
- Pregnancy
- Sexually transmitted infections
- Dissociation
- Flashbacks and triggers
- Self-injurious coping behaviours (e.g., self-harm, substance abuse, eating disorders);
- Changes in how you view trust, a sense of vulnerability, and feeling unsafe;
- Personal and professional impacts;
- Academic difficulties

INTERSECTIONALITY OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE

The SSMU believes that all discussions surrounding sexual violence must take an intersectional approach (ted.com/talks/kimberle_crenshaw_the_urgency_of_intersectionality?language=en) recognizing that individuals from certain marginalized groups experience sexual violence at higher rates and also in a different manner than those who hold different forms of privilege.

It is important to recognize that individuals who experience various forms of marginalization, which includes but is not limited to, women, trans and gender nonconforming people, queer people, black, Indigenous, and people of color, people with lower socioeconomic status, and disabled people, are all disproportionately impacted by sexual violence.

CONTACT AND GETTING SUPPORT

The SSMU Gendered and Sexual Violence Policy (GSVP) (ssmu.ca/resources/sexual-violence/ssmu-gendered-and-sexualized-violence-policy), serves to create confidential and survivor-centric processes for members of the SSMU community who have experienced sexual violence and/or gendered violence to receive support and accommodations and make a complaint about sexual or gendered violence. The Anti-Violence Coordinators (AVCs) are those responsible for implementing the four components: prevention, support, advocacy, and response. You can contact them at: avc@ssmu.ca

Glossary

WELCOME & SSMU

Agenda: pp. 90

Refers to a schedule of the items being discussed in a meeting.

Board of Directors: pp. 18

The Board of Directors is the decision-making body of the Society and deals with HR, legal, financial matters, as well as the ratification of various decisions and motions.

Campaigns: pp. 20

Campaigns are the engine of student activism on campus. The Vice-President (External Affairs) is responsible for working with political and social justice campaigns on SSMU's behalf.

Clubs & services: pp. 20

Clubs and associations are student groups with which you can do something you are passionate about. Student-run services are different from clubs in that with clubs you have to sign up to become a member of a particular club. Services are free and accessible to all. They offer many opportunities for volunteering; many of these services are entirely run by students.

Commissioners: pp. 19

Refers to Student Staff who are responsible for chairing a committee. They are part of the portfolio of an Executive and report to the Legislative Council or to the Board of Directors at least once a semester.

Committees: pp. 19

Committees can be reporting to the Board of Directors or the Legislative Council.

Councillors: pp. 19

Councillors are elected student representatives to the legislative council. During their one year term, their role is to represent and advocate for the rights of their constituents (there is from 1 to 3 councillors per faculty depending on the size of the faculty in question), to debate motions, and sit on various committees.

COVID-19 pandemic: pp. 12

Emergency support: pp. 14

Executive Committee: pp. 25

Every week, the executives meet to manage the daily business and operations of the Society in between meetings of the Board of Directors, holding the same powers as the Board.

General Assembly: pp. 18

Refers to meetings for all SSMU Members (undergraduate students at McGill's downtown campus). Any student can introduce a motion, a proposal to be voted on which, if approved, mandates SSMU to take a specific action or adopt a certain position.

Legislative council: pp. 19

The Legislative Council is the legislative arm of the SSMU. Thirty councillors elected by specific constituencies, including school and faculty associations and councils representing particular student demographics, and the six (6) SSMU Executives comprise the voting members of Council. The Speaker, Parliamentarian, General Manager, and Recording Secretary are non-voting members.

Member of the Gallery: pp. 19

Refers to the audience of the Legislative Council.

Motions: pp. 18

Refers to a business item that requires a vote or decision. At the Legislative Council, motions are presented by Executives or Councillors.

Ombudsperson: pp. 67

Policies/ Plan: pp. 66

SSMU policies are mandates or positions of the SSMU valid for 5 years approved by both the Legislative Council or General Assembly. Conversely, plans refers to actionable, implementable proposals typically valid for ten (10) years.

Referenda: pp. 19

Refers to the process through which Members vote on a particular question. There are two (2) referendum periods per year, one (1) in the Fall and one (1) in the Winter semesters. Among other items, fees are approved for renewal via referendum questions.

The Speaker: pp. 19

The Speaker - and speaker on call- of the Society are in charge of presiding over General Assemblies, meetings of the Legislative Council, and meetings of the Board of Directors. Where applicable. The speaker shall not vote or be counted toward the quorum of meets over which they preside. Moreover, they work closely with the governance team of the Society to ensure that governing documents and procedures are followed and efficient.

Senate caucus: pp. 64

Refers to the weekly meeting of the thirteen (13) Undergraduate elected Senators. These meetings are an opportunity to strategize and discuss the state of their various advocacy efforts, committee meetings, and constituency projects.

LIFE ON CAMPUS

Arts: pp. 44

BIPOC: pp. 40

Black, Indigenous and People of Color

Campus events: pp. 3

Campus media: pp. 46

Communauté francophone: pp. 40

Frosh: pp. 34

Refers to a series of events organized by student groups, clubs, or Faculty student associations. As part of Orientation Week, Frosh is organized by upper year students for new recruits.

Indigenous/First Nations/Métis/Inuit: pp. 29

Indigenous" is an umbrella term for First Nations (status and non-status), Métis and Inuit (Queen's University). Conversely, "First Nation" refers to all indigenous peoples in Canada, except Métis and Inuit. Finally, Inuit are a specific indigenous people living in northern Canada and Métis are people with both indigenous and European ancestry (Indigenous Corporate Training Inc.)

International students: pp. 38Listserv: pp. 13

Refers to an electronic mailing list.

One Card: pp. 37

Not only is your OneCard your ID as a student but it can be used to buy food on and off campus.

Residences (on campus housing): pp. 36Student Activism: pp. 47Sustainability: pp. 47Tiohtià:ke: pp. 3

The City of Montreal is known as Tiohtià:ke in Kanien'kéha.

Transfer students: pp. 39Volunteering: pp. 49Work Study: pp. 48

A need-based system for part-time work (clerical, research, technical, library jobs, McGill-affiliated hospitals and organizations). Work study is usually done throughout the school year, but you can find summer positions also.

2SLGBTQIA+: pp. 43

Two-Spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, intersex, asexual, and more.

STUDENT HEALTH AND WELLNESSAlcohol and drugs: pp. 86Consent: pp. 87

Consent is an enthusiastic and freely given "YES!" that must be given for all kinds of sexual activity that you engage in.

Eating disorder: pp. 83

Eating disorders are complex, and are generally characterised by abnormal eating patterns, a strong fear of weight gain, and an intense preoccupation with body image (Aneb).

Family: pp. 79Gendered violence: pp. 89

Any act of physical, verbal, or emotional aggression which implicates, targets, or de-legitimizes an individual's gender presentation or identity, or an act reinforcing gender inequalities resulting in physical, sexual, emotional, or economic harm. This includes misogynistic, queerphobic, and transphobic violence.

Health Insurance/Health and Mental Plan: pp. 80Mental health: pp. 84Sexual assault/harassment/violence: pp. 89

Sexual violence refers to any non-consensual, unwanted actual, attempted, or threatened act or behaviour, that is carried out through sexual means or by targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity, or gender expression. Sexual assault is a form of sexual violence characterized by sexual touching or the threat of sexual touching without the individual's consent. Finally, sexual harassment refers to any unwanted conduct of a sexual nature or attention that affects the working, learning, or living environment or leads to adverse consequences. It can include verbal abuse, manipulation, and coercion.

Spirituality / religion: pp. 82LIFE IN MONTREAL*Arts, culture & events in Montreal: pp. 57Indigenous Arts & culture in Montreal: pp. 60Living off campus/ renting / subletting: pp. 58

Renting and subletting an apartment are different in whose name is on the lease. When you rent an apartment (or any location), your name should be on the lease and you can directly reach out to the landlord for rent and any issues rising up. Conversely, when you are subletting, it means that you are renting a space through the original renter; your name is not on the lease. In that case, you will have to deal with them for rents or any issues, and not the landlord.

Milton Parc: pp. 55Neighborhood: pp. 52Off campus jobs: pp. 60Public Transportation: pp. 54THE UNIVERSITY*Chancellor/Principal/Provost/Dean: pp. 64

The Chancellor is the titular head of the University. They preside over the Convocation, and represents the University at official functions. The Principal and Vice Chancellor is the chief executive officer of McGill who works with the University community to achieve excellence in teaching, research and service, and represents McGill to external bodies at home and around the world. Thirdly, the Provost and Vice-Principal (Academic) acts as McGill's chief academic officer and is responsible for the development, implementation and assessment of all academic policies and programs, budget planning and allocations. Finally, the 14 deans are the head of their respective faculty.

Financial support: pp. 65P7: pp. 64

The P7, also known as the Principals' Seven, consists of the Principal and the Chief of Staff, the Vice-Principals, General Counsel, the Secretary General, and the Deputy Provost (Student Life & Learning).

Senate: pp. 64

The McGill Senate is the highest governing body of the University tasked with general control and supervision over academic matters. It is composed of 111 voting members broadly representative of the University's constituencies (faculty, staff, students, administrators, Governors and alumni). There are 13 one-year term Student Senators representing the undergraduate student body on the McGill University Senate.

Student rights: pp. 66ACADEMICS*Academic advising: pp. 77Course registration: pp. 70Electives: pp. 73

Elective courses are courses that you can take outside of your chosen major/minor - and in some cases even outside of your faculty.

Exam/midterm/final: pp. 74

In McGill, there are 2 designated final exam periods, happening in December and April. During the semester, your course instructor will probably administer a midterm exam, whose dates are entirely to their discretion.

Grading: pp. 73Libraries: pp. 72Mentoring: pp. 76Tutoring: pp. 75MiniCourses: pp. 70

Offered by SSMU, they are non-credit courses offered to students and the Montreal community.

COVID SU Option: pp. 73

Using the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S/U) option, you will receive a final grade of "S" or "U". These courses will not count toward the GPA, while still counting as credits.

Textbook/coursepack: pp. 71
