4 Motion Regarding the SSMU Equity Policy 2018 2018-04-05
WHEREAS, CAMSR’s previous rejections of divestment from the top 200 fossil fuel companies worldwide\(^5\)\(^6\) raise concerns over their unwillingness to consider student voices and community feedback, and therefore points to the need for student-led pressure;

WHEREAS, monies held by public institutions ought to serve the public interest, which stands opposed to financially supporting fossil fuel companies whose lobbying and extraction activities are directly responsible for the greatest existential threat humanity has faced to date;

WHEREAS, frais institutionnels obligatoires (FIOs), or Ancillary Fees, are mandatory fees charged to students and dedicated toward a particular unit or program, and may cover costs such as technology improvements, student life, support services, and sports or recreational activities;

WHEREAS, aside from annual adjustments for disposable household income per capita (DHIC), the creation or modification of an FIO requires approval from the student body via Referendum\(^7\);

WHEREAS, Section 6 (Fees), Article 6.3 of the Internal Regulations of Finance states “The Legislative Council and the Board of Directors reserve the right to reject a proposed Ancillary Fee question outright;”

BE IT RESOLVED, THAT the Society establish a Policy on the Moratorium on considering Referendum questions for new Ancillary Fees, increases to existing Ancillary Fees, or any other new fees or increases to existing fees that McGill University wishes the Society to send to Referendum for approval by the Membership until McGill University:

1. Divests from its investments in companies whose primary business is the extraction, distribution, and/or sale of fossil fuels, per Appendix A; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, THAT the Society’s Executives be mandated to form a “No” Referendum committee should McGill University force a vote on new Ancillary Fees, increases to existing Ancillary Fees, or any other new fees or increases to existing fees upon the student body until McGill University:

1. Divests from its investments in companies whose primary business is the extraction, distribution, and/or sale of fossil fuels, per Appendix A; and

2. Pledges to refrain from investing in all companies whose primary business is the extraction, distribution, and/or sale of fossil fuels, and from all mutual funds that invest in such companies in the future;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, THAT the Vice-President (University Affairs) communicate this position immediately to the Principal and Vice-Chancellor, the Chair of the Board of Governors, the members of the Board of Governors, the Chair of CAMSR, and the members of CAMSR, per the letter in Appendix B;

Dear:

McGill University Board of Governors
McGill Committee to Advise on Matters of Social Responsibility (CAMSR)
Dr. Suzanne Fortier; Principal and Vice-Chancellor
Mr. Ram Panda; Chair of the Board of Governors
Ms. Cynthia Price Verreault; Chair of CAMSR

During the first McGill Senate meeting of the 2019-2020 academic year, Principal and Vice-Chancellor Fortier, said that “the planet cannot wait” for us to take action against the devastating effects of climate change. Principal Fortier was right. It cannot. The planet cannot wait for institutions like McGill University to do the right thing after coming short time and time again. The planet cannot wait for corporations and investors to realize that individual sacrifice means nothing unless those with the resources to effect real, systemic change sacrifice too. The planet cannot wait for McGill to take any longer in divesting its endowment from the fossil fuel industry.

For years, student groups like Divest McGill and their allies have been educating our University on the unfathomably destructive impact of the fossil fuel industry and pushing our University to do better. For years, McGill has declined to listen to its own students, its own scientists, and most recently, its own Senate. In this time, it has become clear to us that few avenues actually exist to guarantee that our University makes decisions in its whole community’s best interest, while being held to the standards that are set by the community that it governs, a line of thought rendered paradoxical when one takes into account the fact that without the financial contributions of its community (namely students) the University would cease to be able to function at all.

The Students’ Society of McGill University (SSMU) is a proud member of the James McGill Circle, a select group of benefactors, foundations, and organizations that have donated $1 million or more to McGill University. Over the course of decades, the generosity of our students have contributed to all aspects of our University. However, our donations should not be taken for granted. As the University continues to ignore our wishes to have our endowment divested from fossil fuel companies, we, the over 23,000 undergraduate students that the SSMU represents, in good conscience and in recognition of present climate emergency, cannot continue to support McGill University in this way.

It is for this reason that the SSMU has adopted a policy which imposes a complete and total Moratorium on considering new Ancillary Fees, increases to existing Ancillary Fees, or any other new fees or increases to existing fees that McGill University wishes to send to referendum for approval by the SSMU membership, until McGill University divests from its investments in companies whose primary business is the extraction, distribution, and/or sale of fossil fuels, and pledges to refrain from... investing in all companies whose primary business is the extraction, distribution, and/or sale of fossil fuels and from all mutual funds that invest in such companies in the future. This policy will remain in effect until May 1, 2024, at which time it may be considered for renewal.

In the University context, where those most interested in affecting genuine change are often also the most underrepresented on our governing bodies, holding these bodies accountable can seem next to impossible. Trust in McGill’s institutions is eroding, and this Moratorium is nothing if not proof of that. In order for this trust to be restored, McGill must prove that the community that it serves is truly its priority by divesting from fossil fuels. Until then, the SSMU will act in the interests of the community that McGill University continues to ignore.

Kindest regards,

The Students' Society of McGill University
