BACKGROUND

Haven, a campus safety app developed by the Haven Safe Technology Corporation, is a mobile application used by thousands of students in Canada to quickly connect with loved ones and the police in emergency situations. With Haven, students have a 'Swiss Army Knife' of safety on them at all times, perfect for when they feel uneasy or need help immediately. University of Toronto Computer Engineering student Nelson Lee created Haven in 2020 after hearing about a friend's on-campus sexual assault story.

The Students' Society of McGill University is the official student's union for students at McGill University, located on Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabe, traditional territories.

PURPOSE

This MOU will enable Students' Society of McGill University to establish an enhanced campus safety presence with the aid of the Haven Safe Technology Corporation's 'Haven – Safety Alert & Locator' app.

The goal of the Haven Safe Technology Corporation for this MOU and partnership with the Students' Society of McGill University is to increase the reach of its mobile safety application technology for students in the McGill community. The Haven Safe Technology Corporation's goals of 'making the world a safer place' is achieved by having more students use its revolutionary campus safety app, Haven.

The goal of the Students' Society of McGill University for this MOU and partnership with the Haven Safe Technology Corporation is to fully utilize technology to better provide intervention and prevention-related services for the McGill student body. The Haven app will allow the Students' Society of McGill University prevent incidents and better support students of critical incidents while gaining key insights into on-campus safety metrics.
