

Athletic Councillor Report: SSMU Legislative Council
Sédami-Habib Djossou, Athletics Representative to SSMU
April 6th 2022

Varsity council

-Organized a donut sale to lower costs for the incoming gala to award different prizes to outstanding Martlets and Redbirds.

Highlights

Basketball

Samuel Chaput received first team all-stars honours, while Haris Elezovic was on the second team

Emma-Jane Scott received second team all-star honours. Daniella Mbengo and Stephy Tchoukuiegno were both on the Rookie all-star team

Volleyball

Charlène Robitaille and Victoria Iannotti were both on the First team all star. Charlene was also named on the All-Canadian team

Hockey

Mikisiw Awashish received the price for Equity, diversity and inclusion award.

Scott Walford receive the "True Sport" award

William Rouleau received the all rookie team and first team all star awards.
Academic All-Canadian

Maxime Bouchard also received all rookie team award

Chrissy Colizza received the Leadership and social engagement award.

Bridget O'Hare has been appointed to the Spain National hockey team in the 2nd Division. She participates in an international tournament in Mexico City ending on the 7th. Teammate Mia Vaananen participates in another international hockey tournament for France in Brampton, Ontario.

Track & Field

Matthew Beaudet won the Bronze medal at the National meet. Broke a school record running a 3x1000m in 8:18:75 at

Donna Ntambue won gold at the 60m dash and bronze at 4x200m with the help of teammates Lola-Rose McLennan, Bethany Walton-Knight and Vannessa Lu Langley. Rosalie Lupien won the gold pole vault challenge, and Makayla Mitchell won silver in the Pentathlon challenge

Badminton

Nicolas Germain won the rookie of the year award

Andy Bai won second-team all-star team

Eliana-Ruobing Zhang has been named Player & Rookie of the year

Artistic swimming

Martlets won 5 medals at the Meet held in early march in Toronto. They won one bronze medal, two silvers and two gold medals.