Issue

The SSMU received applications for 7 groups and recommended the following:

We seek to Approve:

1. Balkan Student Society
2. Iraqi Student Society
3. McGill Students Yu-Gi-Oh Club
4. McGill Padel Club
5. Algerian Student Association
6. McGill Students for Partners in Health Canada
7. McGill Women's Flag-Football Club

Background and Rationale

Pursuant to the Legislative Council motion delegating the responsibilities of the Club Committee to the President and the Vice-President (Operations and Sustainability), the applications were reviewed and were judged to have good standing.

Thus, this motion is recommending that the SSMU Legislative Council approve the granting of interim status to the 7 Clubs.

Alignment with Mission

This motion is in line with the SSMU's Internal Regulations of Student Groups and with the SSMU's overarching mission to provide community on Campus.

Consultations Completed

VP Finance

- Budgets look good
- Overlapping clubs also mean overlapping funding

Accounting Department

- We can handle opening more bank accounts just to make sure we alert RBC about inactive accounts for administrative reasons

Risk Factors and Resource Implications

The opening of bank accounts for more SSMU Clubs and further administrative procedures to ensure that these students get access to the account.

Sustainability Considerations

N/A

Impact of Decision and Next Steps

If this motion were to pass, 7 would be granted interim club status with the SSMU, with all the benefits that come with it.

Motion or Resolution for Approval

Be it resolved, the Legislative Council approves 7 clubs individually for interim status.
