Issue The TVM Fee will expire in Winter of 2025, and therefore requires renewal.

Background and Rationale TVM is a student-run televised news and entertainment service.

Alignment with Mission This fee aligns with SSMU's mission of service, leadership, and representation, as it provides opportunities for student engagement and involvement.

Consultations Completed SSMU Vice-President (Finance)
SSMU President
SSMU Director of Clubs and Services
The motion was sent to the VP Finance of TVM for review.

Risk Factors and Resource Implications Should the proposed renewal of the TVM Fee fail to pass, TVM will not have the necessary funds to operate.

This fee is opt-outable, mitigating the risk of financial strain on students.

Sustainability Considerations

This motion is necessary for the financial sustainability of TVM.

Impact of Decision and Next Steps

Impact of Decision

Should this motion and the subsequent referendum question be adopted, the TVM Fee would continue being billed at $1.50 per semester for full-time and part-time students.

Next Steps:

If approved by the Legislative Council, the referendum question will be forwarded to Elections SSMU to be included in the Winter 2025 Referendum.

Motion or Resolution for Approval

Be it resolved that the Legislative Council approve the following question for the Winter 2025 referendum period:

“Do you agree to the renewal of the opt-outable TVM Fee at $1.50 per semester for full-time and part-time students, beginning in Fall 2025 and ending in Winter 2030 (inclusive and excluding the Summer semester), with the understanding that a majority ‘no’ vote will result in the discontinuation of the fee?”
