Issue

There are spaces within the SSMU building that Services, Clubs, or ISGs can potentially use that require renovation. Room B-24 requires a heavy change/renovation consisting of electrical work, carpet change, painting, and heavy equipment removal.

Background and Rationale

After many conversations with the Building Director, we believe that optimizing the space we occupy is of the utmost importance. This space in particular is very large, and there have been many discussions with student groups regarding its potential use.

Alignment with Mission

Providing space to the different groups who need a change.

VP Finance

- The budget will come out of the University Center Building Reserve Fund

Risk Factors and Resource Implications

Financial factors, reduced June budget for building reserve

Impact of Decision and Next Steps

Building department to contact those who are doing the work, and will schedule it during the summer. June is ideal, given that there aren't many occupants in the building

Motion or Resolution for Approval

Examples:

Be it resolved that the approval of $12,737 from the building budget be allocated to F.A.M.G construction, per Appendix A quote.
