Applications are still open for Music Minors at Schulich

The Schulich School of Music offers a range of undergraduate minors that can complement your BMus degree. Courses in each minor may double-count as electives and provide registration access to minor-specific courses.

Minors are available in Applied Performance Sciences, Music Entrepreneurship, Jazz Performance, Early Music, Musical Science & Technology, Jazz Arranging and Composition, Music Composition, Choral Conducting, Music History, and Music Theory.

🔗 Note: The Musical Applications of Technology Minor will be retired in Fall 2026, with its content merging into the Musical Science & Technology Minor.

📅 Application period: December 1, 2025 – February 15, 2026 (for Fall 2026 admission)

For questions or more information about any of these minors, please contact the Schulich School of Music.

💡 MUSA Student Life Fund Applications Now Open

Applications for the MUSA Student Life Fund (SLF) are officially open! The SLF provides grant funding for student-led projects that enhance the Schulich student experience – whether social, academic, or artistic. Past projects have included masterclasses, performances, workshops, publications, and more.

This year, students can apply for the SLF Large Grant, offering up to $1,000 in one-time funding for a Winter 2026 project that makes a meaningful and new contribution to the SSoM community.

📅 Deadline: February 13, 2026 at 11:59 PM

All undergraduate Schulich students are eligible to apply. If you have an idea that could improve student life at Schulich, we highly encourage you to apply! Questions? Reach out at internal.musa@mail.mcgill.ca

🧠 Mindfulness for Anxiety Group – Now Accepting Participants

The Emotional Health CBT Clinic is currently accepting new participants for an upcoming Mindfulness for Anxiety group, beginning February 2026. While some logistical details will be determined based on participant availability, the core information is outlined below.

Program Details:

- Purpose: To cultivate mindfulness and develop effective strategies for coping with anxiety
- Duration: 8 weeks (starting February 2026)
- When: Mondays, 6:30 PM–8:10 PM
- Where: Online or in person (Le Plateau), based on participant availability
- Cost: $55 per session (receipts provided)

Each session combines psychoeducation with practical, skills-based tools. Participants will explore mindfulness practices, learn about their benefits for anxiety, and gain strategies that can be integrated into daily life.
